Fairhaven High School

The Huttlestonian

2008

Walking down these hallways, it is hard to imagine that this building contains over a century of the same feelings we are experiencing today – the same anxious excitement to start a new chapter, to begin the rest of our lives. It is now our time to begin defining a new era in our school's history, and the next stage in our lives.

And here we are: the first graduating class in a new century of Fairhaven High School history. We have witnessed, over the course of our four years at FHS, a celebration of tradition and history that will not soon be forgotten. Even as we move into the future, forging for ourselves a new identity both as a generation of Fairhaven High School graduates and as individuals, it will be impossible to forget the deep-seeded sense of community and tradition afforded us by our education here.

These hallways echo with history, with over 100 years' worth of hopes and fears and dreams. Perhaps in another century, we will be remembered by a new graduating class for the contributions we have made to our school and our community.

But, as we stand on graduation day, we celebrate both the history of the past and the promise of the future.

Congratulations, Class of 2008.

The past four years have gone by fast for some and slowly for others. These years really are the most influential of our lives. We've made friends that have changed our lives, and we've decided how to carry on our education in our adult lives. Some have found it easy to determine the path to take for his/her future, while some have found it much harder to decide. All the lessons, both academic and moral, that we have been taught in this "castle on the hill" can be applied to the rest of our lives. The understanding, caring, and consideration that each one of us has received truly shows us that this school has more to it than meets the eye. As we get older, we will always have our high school memories. In the words of Spongebob Squarepants, "You are who you are and no amount of mermaid magic, or managerial promotion, or some other third thing can change who you really are, a kid."

Administration and School Committee

Dear Class of 2008:

John Grondin
Interim Principal

This past August I had the pleasure of meeting the Class of 2008 for the first time. During my term as interim principal, I pledged that your senior traditions, functions and positive experiences would not be disrupted with a change in administrative leadership. In my short time at Fairhaven High School you have proven to me that the community of Fairhaven can be proud of your character and exemplary leadership. You are a class that is willing to be creative in your endeavors and respectful to those around you.

Mary Jane Muello
Assistant Principal

Shortly you will be alumni of Fairhaven High School and follow in what I find to be a long tradition of pride in your school and community. I trust you will graduate with fond memories of Fairhaven High School that will last a lifetime. Upon earning your diploma, take the time to reflect on those individuals, your teachers, your parents, and your friends, that have played a positive role in influencing your life thus far. You have reached a milestone in your lives, yet there are many challenges ahead; take them in stride and persevere. Personally, I have been honored to serve as your interim principal and wish each and every graduate of the Class of 2008 good fortune and good health in the years to come. In closing, I truly regret my experiences with you were so brief; however, they will always be most memorable.

Sincerely,
John A. Grondin
Interim Principal

Fairhaven School Committee: (Standing) Superintendent Robert Baldwin, Ed. D, Vice Chairman Colin Veitch, Chairman Andrew B. Tillett, and David Gonsalves. (Seated) Louis H. Kruger, Stacia Powers, and Stephen R. Desroches, Ed. D.

A Look at the Past Four Years

Since entering FHS as freshman in 2004 we have...

2008

Seen the Red Sox win the World Series twice, and the New England Patriots win two super bowls

2008

Seen millions of people go out at midnight and celebrate the last book in the Harry Potter series

2008

Heard Kelly Clarkson "Breakaway" and of course, witnessed Justin Timberlake bring "Sexyback"

2008

Been amazed by new technology that has changed the way we communicate; out with telephones & CD players, in with iPhones and iPods

2008

Watched the TV revolution with high definition channels, and digital recording;

2008

Formed our opinions on the war in Iraq and seen the economy shift, and gas prices skyrocket

2008

Awoken to global warming, and its effects on our environment

2008

Grown together. We have laughed through so many good times and been there for each other through all that has happened. We have learned so much from our teachers, and also experienced things that one could never learn in any class. And through everything, we don't need to dwell on whom we will become, but the moments that made us who we are.

Good luck seniors!

Senior Class Officers Justin Alves, Jocelyn Laferriere, Advisor Cari Mailloux, Erin Baldwin, and Tyler Blanchard show their school spirit on Blue & White Day.

President's Message to the Class of 2008

John Steinbeck said, "When you're a child you're the center of everything. Everything happens for you. Other people? They're only ghosts furnished for you to talk to. But when you grow up you take your place and you're your own size and shape. Things go out of you to others and come in from other people. It's worse, but it's much better too."

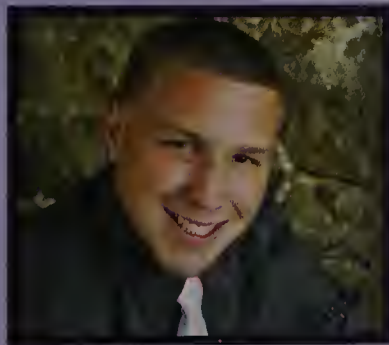

As we prepare to leave Fairhaven High School, we are children taking our own size and shape in the world. We have worked hard the past four years to learn, and now it is time to take what we have learned and put it to use to affect the lives of other people. When we were in elementary school everything was done for us, from having our shoes tied to picking out what clothes we would wear to school, but now as seniors we are the ones who must do things for others. We must attempt to change the world in any little way we can. The different actions we take to help others in the years to come will help to form us as people and will create the society that we will all live in.

So, while these past thirteen years in school have been fun, it is now time to leave, and the words of Steinbeck become much more poignant, "It's worse, but it's much better too." Now it is our turn to take what we have learned and put it to good use in the world around us.

Haunted High School

The 2nd Annual Haunted High School was held on October 23 and 25, 2007 as a fundraiser to benefit the 2008 Huttlestonian Yearbook. The $3 guided tour through the beautiful but spooky castle on the hill was led by FHS seniors. Underclassmen aided in a mad scientist lab, haunted gym, and ghostly study hall. The halls were low lit with white lighting for an ominous feeling and mysterious setting and featured a Civil War general. The event was targeted for elementary school children but even scared some adults.

Winter Concert

The F.H.S. Holiday Concert was held on the evening of December 19, 2007. The concert was performed for all students on December 21, the day before winter break. The school and community enjoyed performances from the mixed chorus, concert choir, and the band. The concert was run by Kathleen Goes (chorus) and Bryan Young (band).

Junior Day

The 101st Class to Graduate

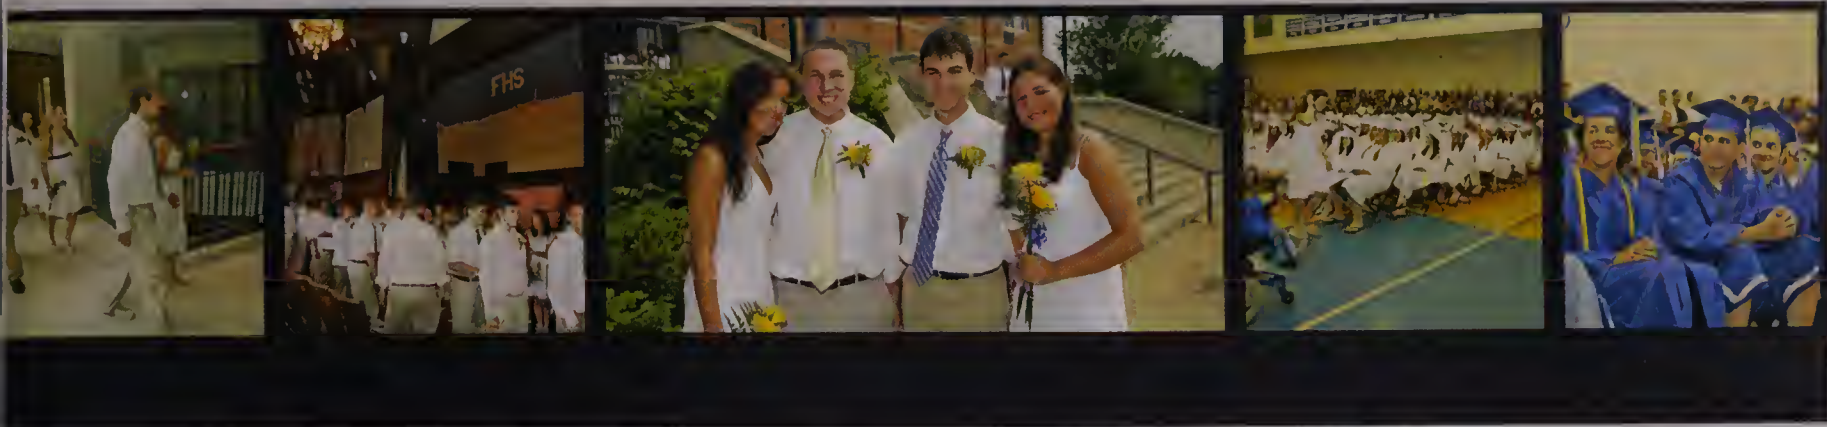

On June 1, 2007, our class began its journey to becoming seniors. Our class is the 101st to graduate, so technically, we are starting a new century of Fairhaven High School graduates. Junior Day had many songs and awards that demonstrated the hardwork and diligence in academics for many students. Students, such as Justin Alves, Kelly Costa, Gabrielle Ferreira, Laura Surprenant, and David Wilson received scholarships and achievement awards to further them on their way to excellence.

Prom 2007

Prom 2007 was an exciting event. It was, for most of us, our first prom. The after-prom party was creative enough to keep our interest until all hours of the night.

Class of 2010 Fundraiser: Student Teacher Basketball

Participating students were Cody Parker, Bryan Sweeney, Ian Andrade, Mike Lainey, Sean Flynn, Nate Greene, A Krisla, Erin Baldwin, Taylor Motta, Maggie Rossi, Kaleigh Charrette, Brady Murphy, Doug Braley, Nick Leary, C Costa, Byran Rebello, John Lebrode, Tim Desroche, and Mike Pina.

Mr. Ponte (2001) scored 35 points showing some of what he did when he played in high school. He wasn't enough the teachers to win. Students won by three points. The class raised $300 from the event. Photo by Ed Pepin

Class of 2009

Junior year is crunch time for fundraising. They must pay for their share of the combined senior/junior prom. They started before the school year even began with car washes over the summer. Throughout the winter sports season, the junior and senior classes worked together at the basketball concession stand. They also had the annual Candy Cane Gram (holiday season) and the Computer Compatibility Survey (after February vacation). They finished the year as they began it, with car washes.

"The class has done a great job in volunteering to help out in fundraisers," said Monica Gonsalves (class president), "setting us up in a good position to start off our senior year."

Class of 2010

This has been a great year for sophomore fundraisers. They held the "Student vs. Teacher Basketball Game" in November. They also sold roses on Valentine's Day, which was profitable. A badminton tournament for students and staff was scheduled in April. They finished the year with their annual car wash and a 50-50 raffle.

"Our fundraisers are all about participation," said Rose Oliva (class president), "and we have gotten just that."

Class of 2011

The freshmen have had a slower start to their fundraising. Unlike the other classes where the officers are elected at the end of the school year, freshmen need time for officer elections and planning.

Seth Baumgartner, class president, also blames "slim pickings" for their slow start.

"We have not been able to do bake sales or anything to do with food because of the new Massachusetts movement for 'Healthy Schools,'" he said.

They do have some big plans for the future. They are currently planning to create an executive board to help the officers produce some fresh ideas on fun class fundraisers. They sold Cookie Dough earlier in the year. The officers were scheduled to "tag" at Wal-Mart which will match the amount collected.

They are planning to host a Student/ Teacher Volleyball game later in the year. They are also planning to host "Are You Smarter Than a 5th Grader?" contest. With cooperation from teachers and interested students, the class officers hope to get Town officials, teachers, and well-known town members to participate. They plan on getting their questions directly from 1st - 5th grade teachers. Baumgartner feels this will be a fun event.

"Everyone can see if those highly thought of town figures are as smart as we all thought," he said. "Like any class officers we hope to start up many fundraisers in between, and we are working very hard to meet this goal."

Class of 2009...p. 88-90

To the class of 2009,
As we enter our fourth and final year here at FHS, let's leave a lasting dynasty that will be hard to replicate. Your support the last two years has been successful with fundraisers and events that have given us a brilliant Junior Day and prom. Let's make our senior year even more fulfilling by continuing to work together on projects that will build our friendships and make our legacy most memorable. Thank you for giving me the opportunity to lead our class during these formative years. I believe, as a class, we can achieve anything. Life is what we make it!

the Class of 2010,

we are already halfway through our high school experience and will be juniors next year! In two years, our class has come a long way. We have developed into mature young adults who are ready for anything life throws at them. Although we are all diverse and unique, we are more connected than ever this year. Our experiences bring us closer together, and our struggles make us stronger. I'm proud to be president of our class. Keep up the great work!

To the Class of 2011,

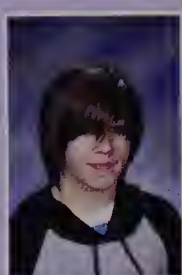

First, I would like to say thank you for voting me class president. We begin a new chapter in our lives as freshmen, striving to adapt to the difference between high school and middle school. Though sometimes this seems hard, we have achieved our goal. This, our freshman year, has been filled with many good and bad memories. I hope that our next three years will be as eventful and exciting as this year!

Taku Kato

A photograph of Taku Kato running on a track. He is wearing a white singlet with "FAIRHAVEN" printed on it and dark shorts. He is captured in mid-stride, looking forward.

Through the American Field Service, Taku Kato has been traveling much of his life throughout the world to experience new cultures. Taku came to Fairhaven in August of 2007 and has spent the year learning about the American culture and making friends that will last a lifetime. As a junior, he participated in all three sports seasons. In the fall, he was a wide receiver on the JV football team. During winter track, he ran the 50 meter dash and the 300 meter race. In the spring, he played center field for the JV baseball team.

A photograph of Taku Kato standing on a blue mat, wearing a blue and white Fairhaven jersey. He has blue face paint on his cheeks and is holding a small object in his hands.

Always wanting to see more of the world, Taku had the opportunity to visit other schools with his AFS friends to share their stories of home and culture. Between being Homecoming prince and making SCC's, Taku has made a big name for himself at Fairhaven High School. Another chapter in his life has ended, but he and everyone in his life have memories that no other will get to share.

Students

Onnalin Lomklang

Onnalin Lomklang, known at Fairhaven High as Ness, was born in Thailand, "the Land of Smiles." She spent the year with the Perry family. Ness said her host family is like her real family, and Katie (junior) and Tori remind her of her real sister. Ness, a junior, played field hockey, winter track, and tennis this year.

She enjoys playing piano and watercolor painting and hopes to become a dentist. She says her favorite part of America is all of the positive people she has met. She loves eating American food, especially with ketchup. Ness doesn't miss anything in particular from home, but she can't forget who she is, where she's from, and the support of her teachers and family who have given her the opportunity to come here.

Onnalin has a younger sister, Nichapa, who hopes to make a trip to the United States next year.

Ness has made some really good friends here and has many memories to bring back to Thailand.

Faculty Intro

Left: Mrs. Cari Mailloux got into the spirit on Costume Day.

Right: Mr. Phil Harding (back) and Mr. Scott Francis (front) stood out in the pouring rain to take care of the faculty on the Math Dept.'s barbecue day for the "Taking Care of Yourself" lunch.

Above: Mrs. Jane Pease showed her spirit on Costume day.

Right: Room 7's ceiling literally collapsed in February. Extensive damage was done. Boston Ornamental won the repair bid at $105,605 which will be expended from the FHS Trust & from efforts from the alumni assoc.

Department News

This year, FHS staff introduced a new program where departments would plan a meal for the rest of the faculty on every second Friday of the month, called "Taking Care of Yourself." Many creative dishes were served including a breakfast brunch, an All-American BBQ, and a "Feeding the Hungry Planet" - an all-green environmental meal. Each month, departments worked hard to outdo the last. Mrs. Debbie Sarry is credited with starting what is eagerly anticipated each month by faculty, who get to eat together and have some fun.

History: Two courses will no longer be in the curriculum after this year: American Government and Non-Western Civilization. Academic Coordinator Kraig Perry is retiring this year. Mr. Ben Hevey took over Black Experience for Mr. Cory Rocha. Mrs. Paula Jardin took over AP History and most of Mr. Eric Carroll's classes. Mr. Greg Davis joined the department after his student teaching here last year.

English: A new Speech and Drama Class was added to the English Department this year. Ms. Tracy Higgins returned from maternity leave. Two English teachers were added to the faculty, Ms. Julie Bettencourt and Ms. Bethany Soares replacing Mrs. Michele Stewart and Mrs. Kristy Acevedo who left the profession. Ms. Christine Rhodes and Ms. Stephanie Leiderman took the reigns on the Book Club and Poetry Club, respectively.

Mathematics: Mr. Phil Harding replaced Mrs. Janet Robert, who retired, as the Academic Coordinator. Mr. Scott Francis took over AP Calculus in place of Mrs. Robert. Ms. Nicole Thuestad joined the department.

Science: A second year of Physics was added for students to prepare for MCAS. Mr. Jeffrey Moll joined the department this year teaching Physics and Physical Science.

Foreign Languages: Ms. Alison Trahan joined the department teaching Spanish.

Wellness: Mrs. Jenifer Polochick became the new Academic Coordinator.

Performance/Media/Visual Arts: This is the first year since the early 1990's that there has been a full orchestra. Mr. Robert Dean joined the Art Department this year. Ms. Maureen Young (art) plans to retire at the end of the school year. Ms. Kathleen Clement joined the faculty this year as the librarian after Ms. Jacqueline Rolnick's retirement last year. She has been teaching in the Fairhaven public schools since 1976.

Retiree

Mr. Kraig Perry

Mr. Perry will miss the camaraderie of talking history with fellow history teachers and classroom teachers, student and teacher dialogue over historical content, and observing great teaching as an Academic Coordinator. Throughout the course of his teaching career, Mr. Perry enjoyed developing creative lessons, using technology in the classroom, and seeing academic success in all of his students. Things that he will not miss, however, include having a student fail, even after he has tried several methods to motivate that student, and, also, telling a first year teacher that they will not be rehired for the following year. The worst aspect of teaching, to him, is the constant worry that the school funding will not be available to support teachers' creativity.

Mr. Kraig Perry began teaching at Fairhaven High School in 1985 and has been the History Department's Academic Coordinator since 2001. In the future, Mr. Perry plans to continue to work in State License "Class Measures" as a consultant for the Performance Review Program.

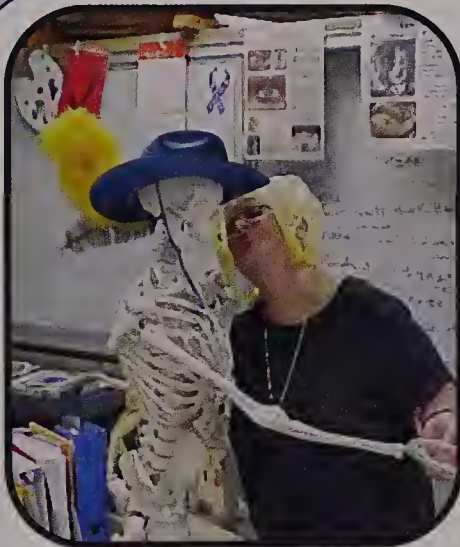

From 1990 to 1993, he coached Junior Varsity Field Hockey and has coached Varsity Tennis for a total of 16 years, from 1989 to 1991 and 1994 to 2008. He ended the last tennis season advancing into tournament action.

Dedications

Ms. Maureen Young

Ms. Young will miss laughing and learning with students and staff and the 100-year-old building. She says she will miss grading students and discipline the least. Her favorite aspect of teaching has been seeing her students arrive at the "Aha!" moment in learning a new concept. Ms. Young has been the art club advisor since 2000. She was also a "Red Square Rule Enforcer" every morning. She plans to relax while learning new things and creating art after her retirement.

Ms. Young began her teaching career in 1976. She began at Hastings Junior High and then moved on to work at Oxford, East Fairhaven Elementary, and Anthony Schools. She began teaching here at FHS in 1990 and has worked for 32 years in the Fairhaven Public Schools.

Ms. Young and a few students decorated the roof of the rotunda before it was covered and placed on top of the new building in 1998.

No more selling candy in schools

By Amanda Meehan and Sarah Leidhold

The government is attempting to pass a law banning candy selling and consumption in schools. This idea has put a dent in fundraising for clubs/organizations.

Although the federal law has not yet been established, our school has its own policy. The Wellness Policy states: "Consistent with current federal and state nutrition regulations, the Fairhaven Public Schools will continue to increase the availability and sale of nutritious selections and discourage the sale and consumption of beverages and foods of low nutritional value during regular school hours."

The policy also states that the district will attempt to maximize nutritional value by decreasing the fat and added sugars and creating moderation in the food portioning. There are separated guidelines for foods that are sold a la carte, in vending machines, snack bars, concession stands, and school stores. Foods sold in an effort to raise funds for the school also has a different policy.

The student handbook states: "Neither food nor drink of any type may be consumed within the classroom or in the hallways. However, there are exceptions.

"Exceptions to this rule may be made for holiday parties or learning activities involving food and/or its preparation."

Selling candy bars during school hours used to be a great moneymaker for many clubs and activities but the new policy stopped that. Students have had to get creative with fundraising and most organizations have come up with some great ideas.

ART CLUB

The club members grew to 14 for this year. Members of the Art Club decide on projects in the beginning of the year. They make many crafts, from notebooks to t-shirts, which are sold during the Very Victorian Christmas at the Town Hall. Along with art they sell smencils (pencils that smell when they write) and lollipops.

Half of the money raised goes to the Richard MacCord, Jr. Art Scholarship to be given to a senior, who is accepted at an art college or university majoring in art, on Junior Day. The scholarship is awarded to one or more graduating seniors that are going to an art college. The rest of the money goes to the Art to fund for field trips. This year, the club went to the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, a house turned art museum in Boston.

BAND

The FHS Band went to a Great East Festival in Salem, NH on May 23. Fundraising included selling wreathes during the holiday season and a car wash later in the year. A first-time event was the band play-athon. From 7.30-7.30 p.m., the band played non-stop. A week before the play-athon in February, the band filled out large forms. The band also sold tickets to the Pops Concert on March 15 which included a catered dinner.

HONOR SOCIETY

The Honor Society has been involved in a variety of community service activities and fundraising events this year. Members have participated in a car wash to raise money for community service projects and donations that have been made to local families in need. The Honor Society also organized a collection of pajamas and books for the Pajama Program, which distributed the donations to local children. A collection of can tabs and Shaw's receipts was organized to help fund the Shriner's Children's Hospital and the Diabetes Association.

Honor Society members have been competing periodically in Honor Bowls with other schools, and completing community service hours on their own time as well. Additional Honor Bowls are scheduled for this year, as well as further community service activities.

CHORUS & DRAMA CLUB

Students sold hamburgers at the Manjiro Festival in October to raise money to attend "Les Miserables" which was presented at the North Shore Music Theater.

They sang at a multi-faith Thanksgiving concert in November. The entire concert choir performed at the Tri-County Choral Festival in Wareham also.

THE HUTTLESTONIAN

The yearbook changed publishers to Lifetouch and went with color on every page. For the first time, students and parents can order online by credit card. Fundraisers included the 2nd annual Haunted High School and the 2nd annual Little Miss Blue Devil. Both fundraisers have grown in one year. The number of LMBD contestants tripled from 10 to 33. The Haunted High School was offered on two week-nights and raised close to $2,000.

FRENCH & SPANISH CLUBS

The clubs combined together to sell poinsettias during the holiday season.

WELLNESS CLUB

The Wellness Club worked with the After-Prom Committee and helped raise funds for the after-prom party. Some of the fund-raisers included selling holiday cards, and selling raffle tickets at the Girls and Boys Clubs and at basketball games.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Led by SC President Justin Alves, Student Council members completed a, FHS Student Bill of Rights, which is presently in the approval stage. Alves also represented the student body at school committee meetings.

Student Council representatives Matt Cziska and Ashlee Aguiar attended the monthly DOE regional meetings in Wareham. They reported their findings on a school-wide survey on violence in school to their committee.

Led by advisor Paula Jardin, the SC raised money for their yearly scholarship for the senior student that best exemplifies positive school involvement at FHS.

MATH TEAM

The Math Team just missed the play-offs, finishing just three points behind Sandwich for the last play-off spot. They ended up in ninth place with 133 points. Team captains were Kelly Costa, Laura Surprenant, and Kristen Rego. Over 40 students participated and look forward to making the playoffs next year. Scott Francis and Phil Harding coached the team, both in their first seasons.

BOOK CLUB

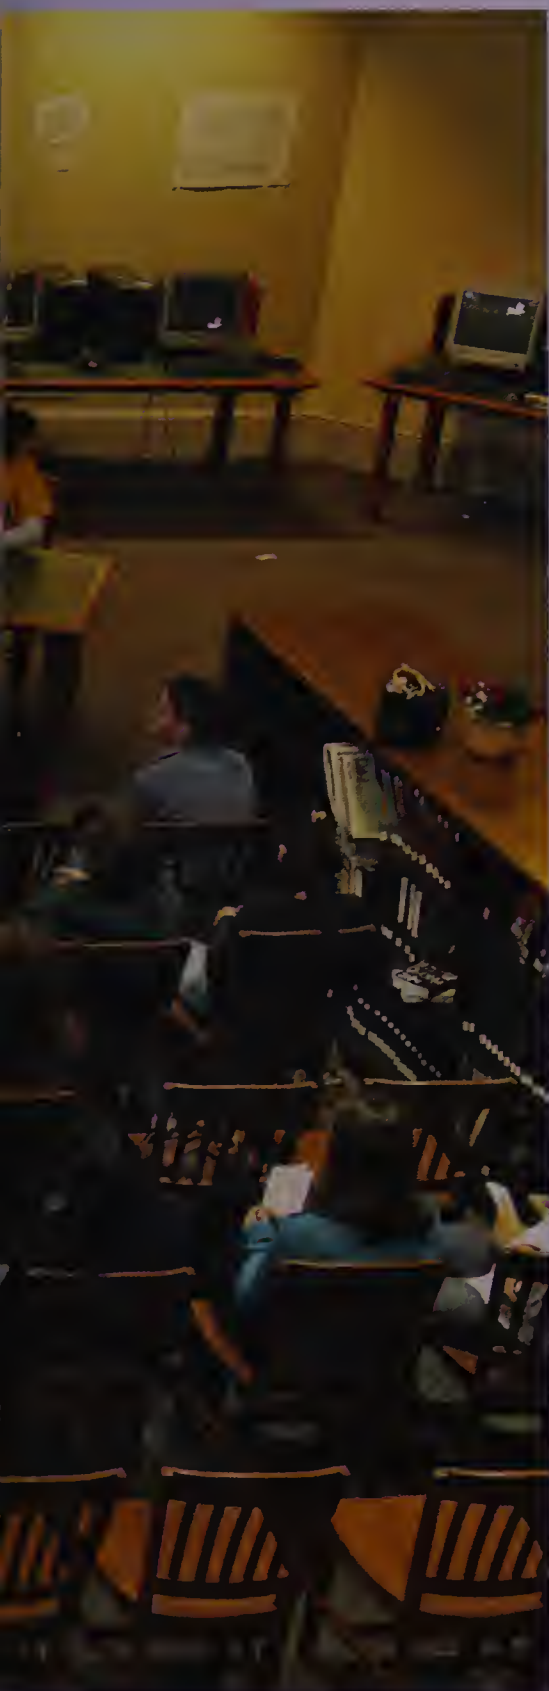

The Book Club's selections for this school year included The Lake of Dead Languages, The Thirteenth Tale, The Historian, and The Five People You Meet In Heaven.

CHESS CLUB

At press time, the chess team was tied for first place in the league and should make the playoffs again this year. The board players include Jess DesRoches, DJ Corey, Nate Sutton, Phil Pereira, & Tim DesRoches.

The chess club is open to any FHS student who has the desire to learn how to play chess or who already knows how to play chess. Practice is held 2-3 afternoons per week after school from 2-3:30 along with a competition day against various local high schools. Practice begins in late October or early November. Meets against other high schools begin in December and run through early March culminating in a play-off between the two schools with the best records.

There are no dues or fundraising obligations. The values emphasized are sportsmanship, cooperation, and leadership. "We also focus on sharpening higher order thinking skills," said Doug Medeiros, club advisor. "Above all, however, we try to have fun."

Sports 2008

The football team put up a good fight against Voc-Tech this year in the homecoming game and won 20-19.

Fall Wrap Up

Football- The FHS football team ended its season at 3-7 this year, with victories against D-R, Case, and Voc-Tech. Junior quarterback Brady Murphy and sophomore Myles Perron-Sovik led the team on offense this past season.

Volleyball- The Lady Blue Devils were undefeated this year in the SCC, improving on last year's record of 18-5. Their victories this season included a historic one over the New Bedford Lady Whalers; the first in two decades. The team advanced all the way to the sectional finals, but fell short to Bourne. Senior Kathryne Olsen was named Standard Times Player of the Year and became a member of the Division 2 All-State Team with an unofficial school record of 1,540 assists in her high school career.

Field Hockey- The Lady Blue Devils ended their season at 6-8-6 this past season with a 6th place finish in the SCC. Onnalin Lomklang, a junior at FHS this year from Thailand, played for the JV team. Junior Monica Gonsalves looks to be the unstoppable goalie next year for FHS.

Girls Soccer- The girls finished their season at 8-5-3, with a third place finish in the SCC but lost to Dedham (4-1) in the first round of the MIAA Division 2 South Sectional tournament. Colleen Pepin proved "that she's an elite player in the conference and one of the best players in the state," said second-year varsity coach Derek Galvam. Pepin became the second-leading scorer in the school's history and holds the record for most goals scored in a season, with 37 goals this past fall and over 93 in her career. Pepin was named The Standard Times Soccer Player of the Year. Senior Kirsti Berche and Sophomore Allysha Silva were both members of The Standard Times Super Team.

Boys Soccer- With a third place finish in the SCC, the boys made it to tournament this season but lost in the first round of the MIAA Division 3 South Sectional to Pembroke, 6-1. Senior Tyler Blanchard was a member of The Standard Times Super Team.

Cross Country- The girls cross country team finished its season 6th in the SCC with help from Seniors Krysten Moore and Julie Riding. The boys finished 7th with outstanding performances from seniors Jeremy Hunt and Peder Jacobsen.

Golf- The golf team fell to 3-17 this season with their only senior Brett Pelletier. Other outstanding performances came from Bill Ashworth and Keane Costa, key returning players for next year's team.

Bart Leach Gym Dedication

This season, the FHS gymnasium was dedicated to former basketball icon, Bart Leach. Leach was a legendary player in the 1940's who scored 1,239 points in his high school career and continued to play basketball for the University of Pennsylvania. He passed away in September, but his family and friends, attended the dedication ceremony, hosted by Superintendent Robert Baldwin and voice of the New England Patriots, Gil Santos. A plaque to be placed in the hallway outside of the gym was presented before tip off of the FHS vs. ORR game.

Colleen Pepin now holds the high school record for most goals scored in a season.

Marcus Barros was strong on defense for the FHS Devils basketball team.

Winter Wrap Up

Hockey- The ORR/FHS hockey team finished at 10-3-7 this season but lost to Pembroke in the MIAA Division 3 South Sectional. Senior Dalton Frye was an impressive goalie with over 30 saves in multiple games.

Boys Track- The boys were 2-6-1 this winter, but the team had many individual accomplishments. Junior Dominic Corey broke the school record in the 50 meter dash, his first time running the event. Senior Peder Jacobsen qualified for the state meet in the 300 meters and senior Jeremy Hunt qualified for the 600 meters.

Girls Track- The girls went 4-5 this winter, with four athletes competing in the state meet. Senior Laura Gray qualified for the All-State meet with a third place finish in the high jump at states. Seniors Leah Isherwood, Krysten Moore, and Julie Riding also competed in the state pentathlon at the Reggie Lewis Center in Boston.

Boys Basketball- The Devils' season fell short of tournament this year, ending regular season play at 8-10, led by Ian Andrade (2009), Myles Perron-Sovik (2010), and Bryan Sweeney (2009).

Girls Basketball- The girls won the SCC Championship for the second year in a row. They beat 14th seeded Ursuline Academy in the first round of the MIAA Division 3 South Sectional tournament, 75-43. In the second round, they took Carver, 71-52. The girls' amazing run ended in the semifinals with a loss to the second-seeded Cardinal Spellman. The five starting seniors Erin Baldwin, Kaleigh Charette, Tessa McMullen, Colleen Pepin and Maggie Rossi played a tremendous season.

Cheerleading- The winter squad took the SCC Championship title beating their rivals, the Lady Bears at Voc-Tech.

Spring Preview

Baseball- The baseball team only lost two players to graduation and looks to make it to tournament action again this year. The captains for the 2008 season are senior Nate Greene and junior Keane Costa.

Boys & Girls Track- The boys and girls track teams will be led by a team of returning seniors from the winter season. Key players include Peder Jacobsen and Laura Gray.

Boys Tennis- The boys tennis team lost strong members last spring to graduation and looks to Tyler Blanchard, Nick Robert, and Sean Flynn for success.

Girls Tennis- The girls hope to make tournament action again this season and will have no trouble doing so with strong efforts from returning players like Gabrielle Ferreira, Kristen Rego, Maggie Rossi, and Aysia Wood.

Softball- The softball team is looking to improve on their record from last year with success from seniors Stephanie Nichols, Jen Gadbois, Lindsey Roderick.

Lacrosse- The girls and boys lacrosse teams will play their first seasons as varsity squads in 2008.

Baldwin Beats Record

Erin Baldwin became the Fairhaven High School all-time leading scorer in basketball this season. By the season's end, she had scored over 1,400 points. Baldwin is a four-time South Coast Conference all-star with an average of 17 points per game in her career. Coach Dave Brogioli stated, "She is the best basketball player that I've ever coached, and more importantly, is a great all-around person. Baldwin received the Dave Cowens Achievement Award, which is presented to the top basketball players in the area each year. The recipients are voted on by representatives from South Coast schools, and she is the second female to win this from Fairhaven High School. Jillian Cunha of FHS shared the award in 1996 with a player from Old Colony and a player from New Bedford.

Congratulations Katie, on your high school graduation! Whether your heart leads you to Bentley or Bryant, we are certain you will become a successful, young, business woman! Your entire family is so proud of all your accomplishments both in the classroom and on the cheering mat. You showed strength and determination by overcoming challenges and have grown into a caring, intelligent and sweet young lady. Although Mom and Dad are sad to see their “baby” going off to college, we’re also very excited for you to begin this new chapter of your life.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Alie

Kristen,
You are going to be a wonderful nurse. We are very proud of you.
Remember to “smile always.”

Love,
Mom, Dad,
Tommy, and Erin

My Fantastic Five:
Tessa, Colleen, Erin, Kaleigh
(Angelina – only prettier), and Maggie,
You have made so many people happy. This is just the beginning. Go out there and shine!
Love,
Mrs. Rego

To our Daughter Sarah Melanson,

In the words from a song of Lee Ann Womack: "When you get the choice to sit it out or dance, I hope you dance. Don't sit and watch the world go by; be a part of the world!" We are so proud of you, it is not easy being a teenager today and yet you have made it through some tough times. And you have proven that you can be very strong. You can do anything you set your mind to. We love you so much!
Congratulations!

Love you,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations Todd!
I am very proud of you! You are the best brother a guy could have.
Your brother,
Scott

You're at the starting line of the rest of your life
Ready as you've ever been Got the hunger and the stars in your eyes
The prize is yours to win
We're giving you our blessing
As you hit that open road
Rachel,
Get ready, get set
Now go!
We love you so much,
Mommy, Yabba and Megan

Nicole,
We are so proud of you
Great job at UMASS.
We know you will succeed at whatever you set our foot.
We love you!
Mom and Dad

Way to go Leah!
You are our golden child with all your accomplishments.
We are so proud of you!
Love you forever
Mom & Chelsea

Chesie,
How much you've changed from that crazy wild child to the mature sensible adult!
Congratulations!
Love always,
Mom and Dad

Shannon,
Congratulations, we are very proud of all you've accomplished. May all your hopes and dreams come true. Just Believe
Love,
Mom, Dad, and Paige

Congratulations, Till!
Best of wishes in your future. Always reach for the stars
We love you!
Mom, Dad, and Melissa

Congratulations Sarah,
You have truly blossomed into an amazing woman. Stay true to yourself; all of your dreams are possible
Love always,
Your Sister Kimberly

Sarah,
You have done a great job. We are extremely proud of you. Continue to work hard. We love
you. Congratulations!

Kristin Marie
It really hasn't passed so quickly. The time has come for me to reluctantly open my arms and let my baby go discover the world. I will miss the past with you to the day but look forward to the future with my young man.
I love you forever.
Mom

Congratulations Peder!
We are so proud of you
and all you have accomplished. Stay focused and enjoy your years at college.

Kaleigh,
What a joy it's been watching you grow into a beautiful and talented young lady. You've enjoyed so much at
JHS. The future has
and awaits.
Your loving family

Kristyn,
Congratulations on all of your accomplishments. We are so proud of you and all that you have become!
Love,

hard work, effort, and dedication:
Tyler Martin, Krysten Moore, Matthew
Charles, Erica Costa, Stephanie Jorge,
Naomi Bertrand, Megan Borges,
Renee Draper, Katie Lumsden, Mary
Cafferty, and Andrea Marcone.

For our daughter Krysten Moore:

We couldn't ask God for more,
We must've done something right
We know we have to let her go
But we'll always remember butterfly kisses

Love always,
Mom and Dad

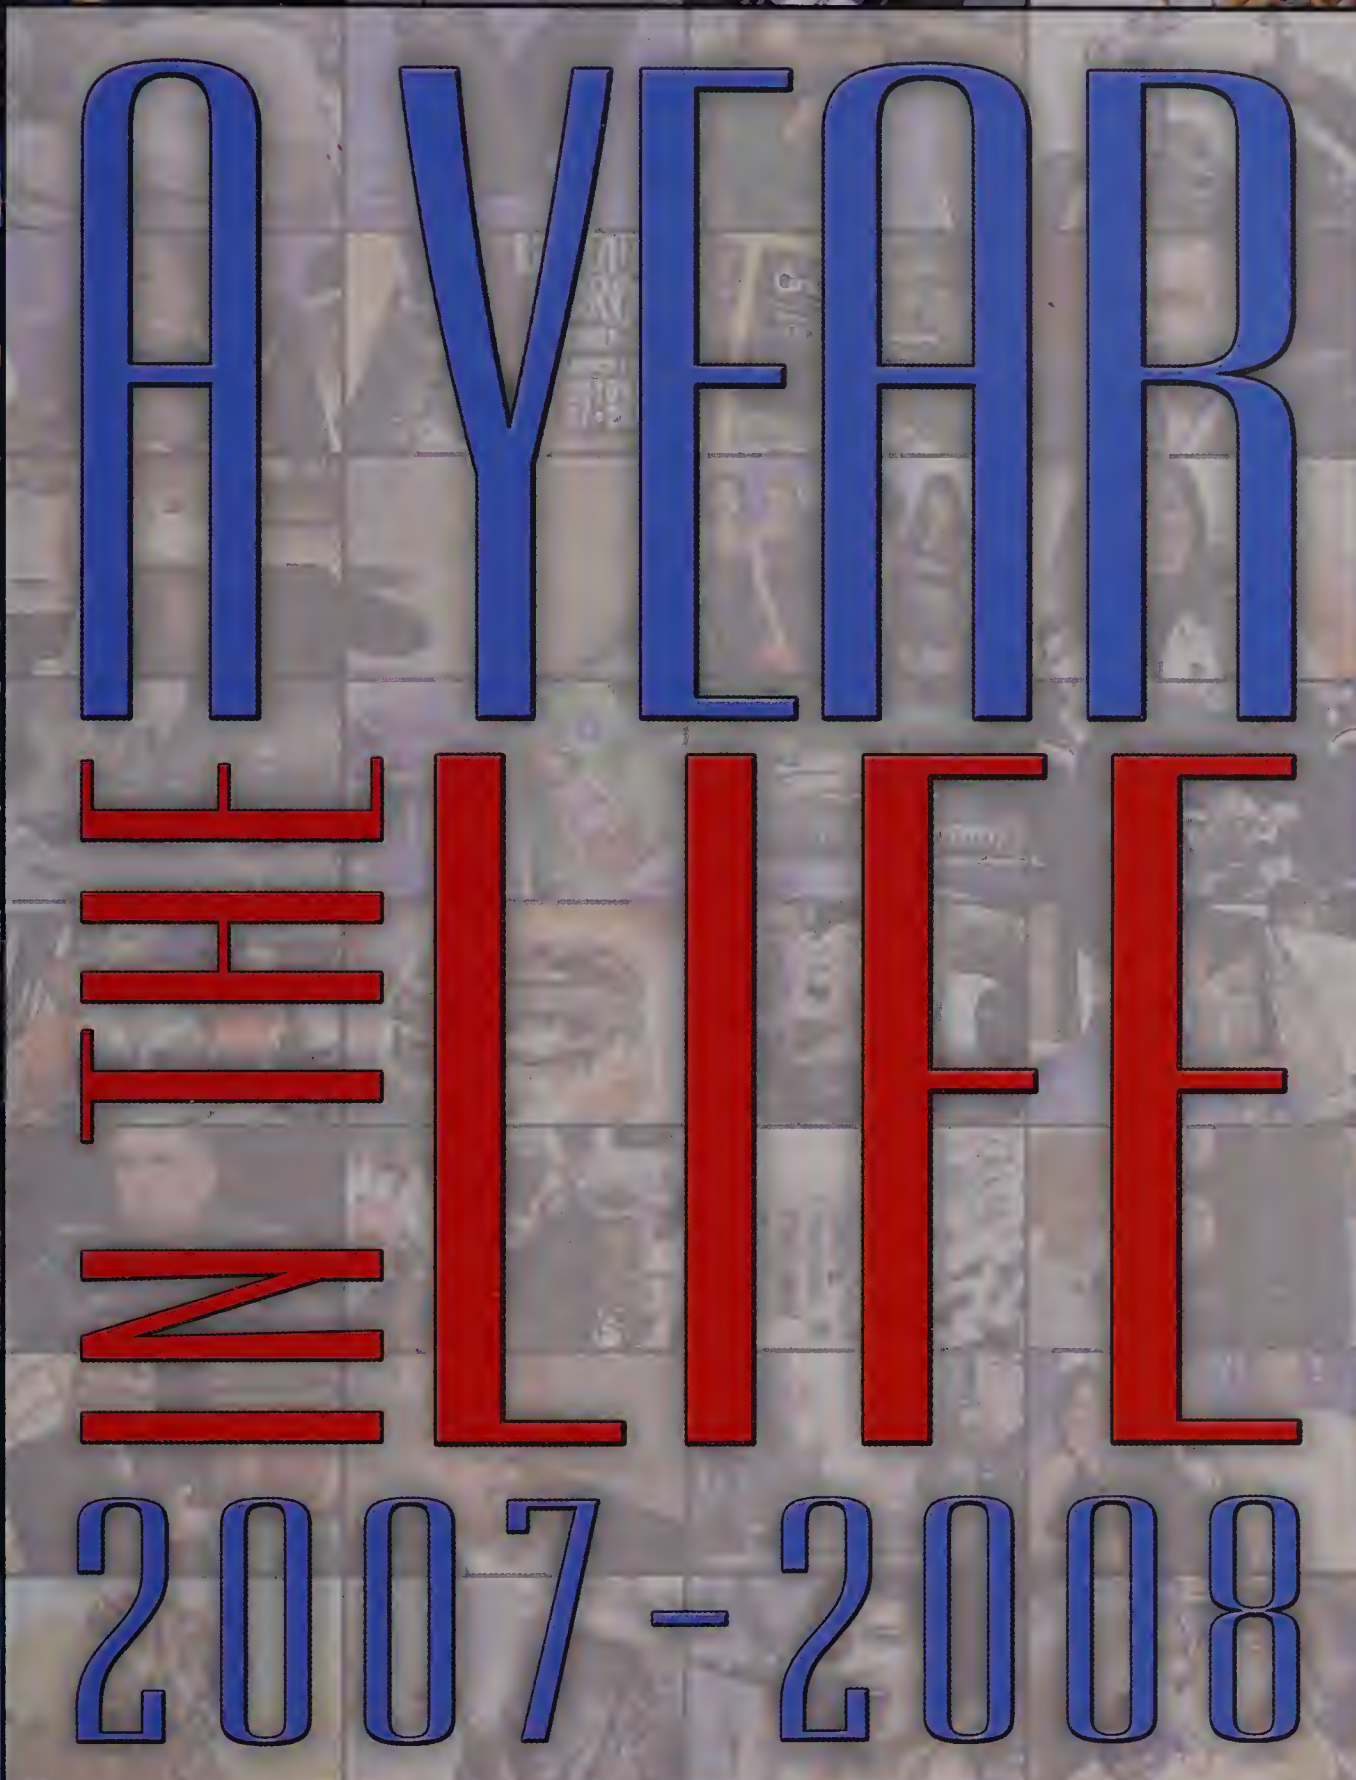

Colophon

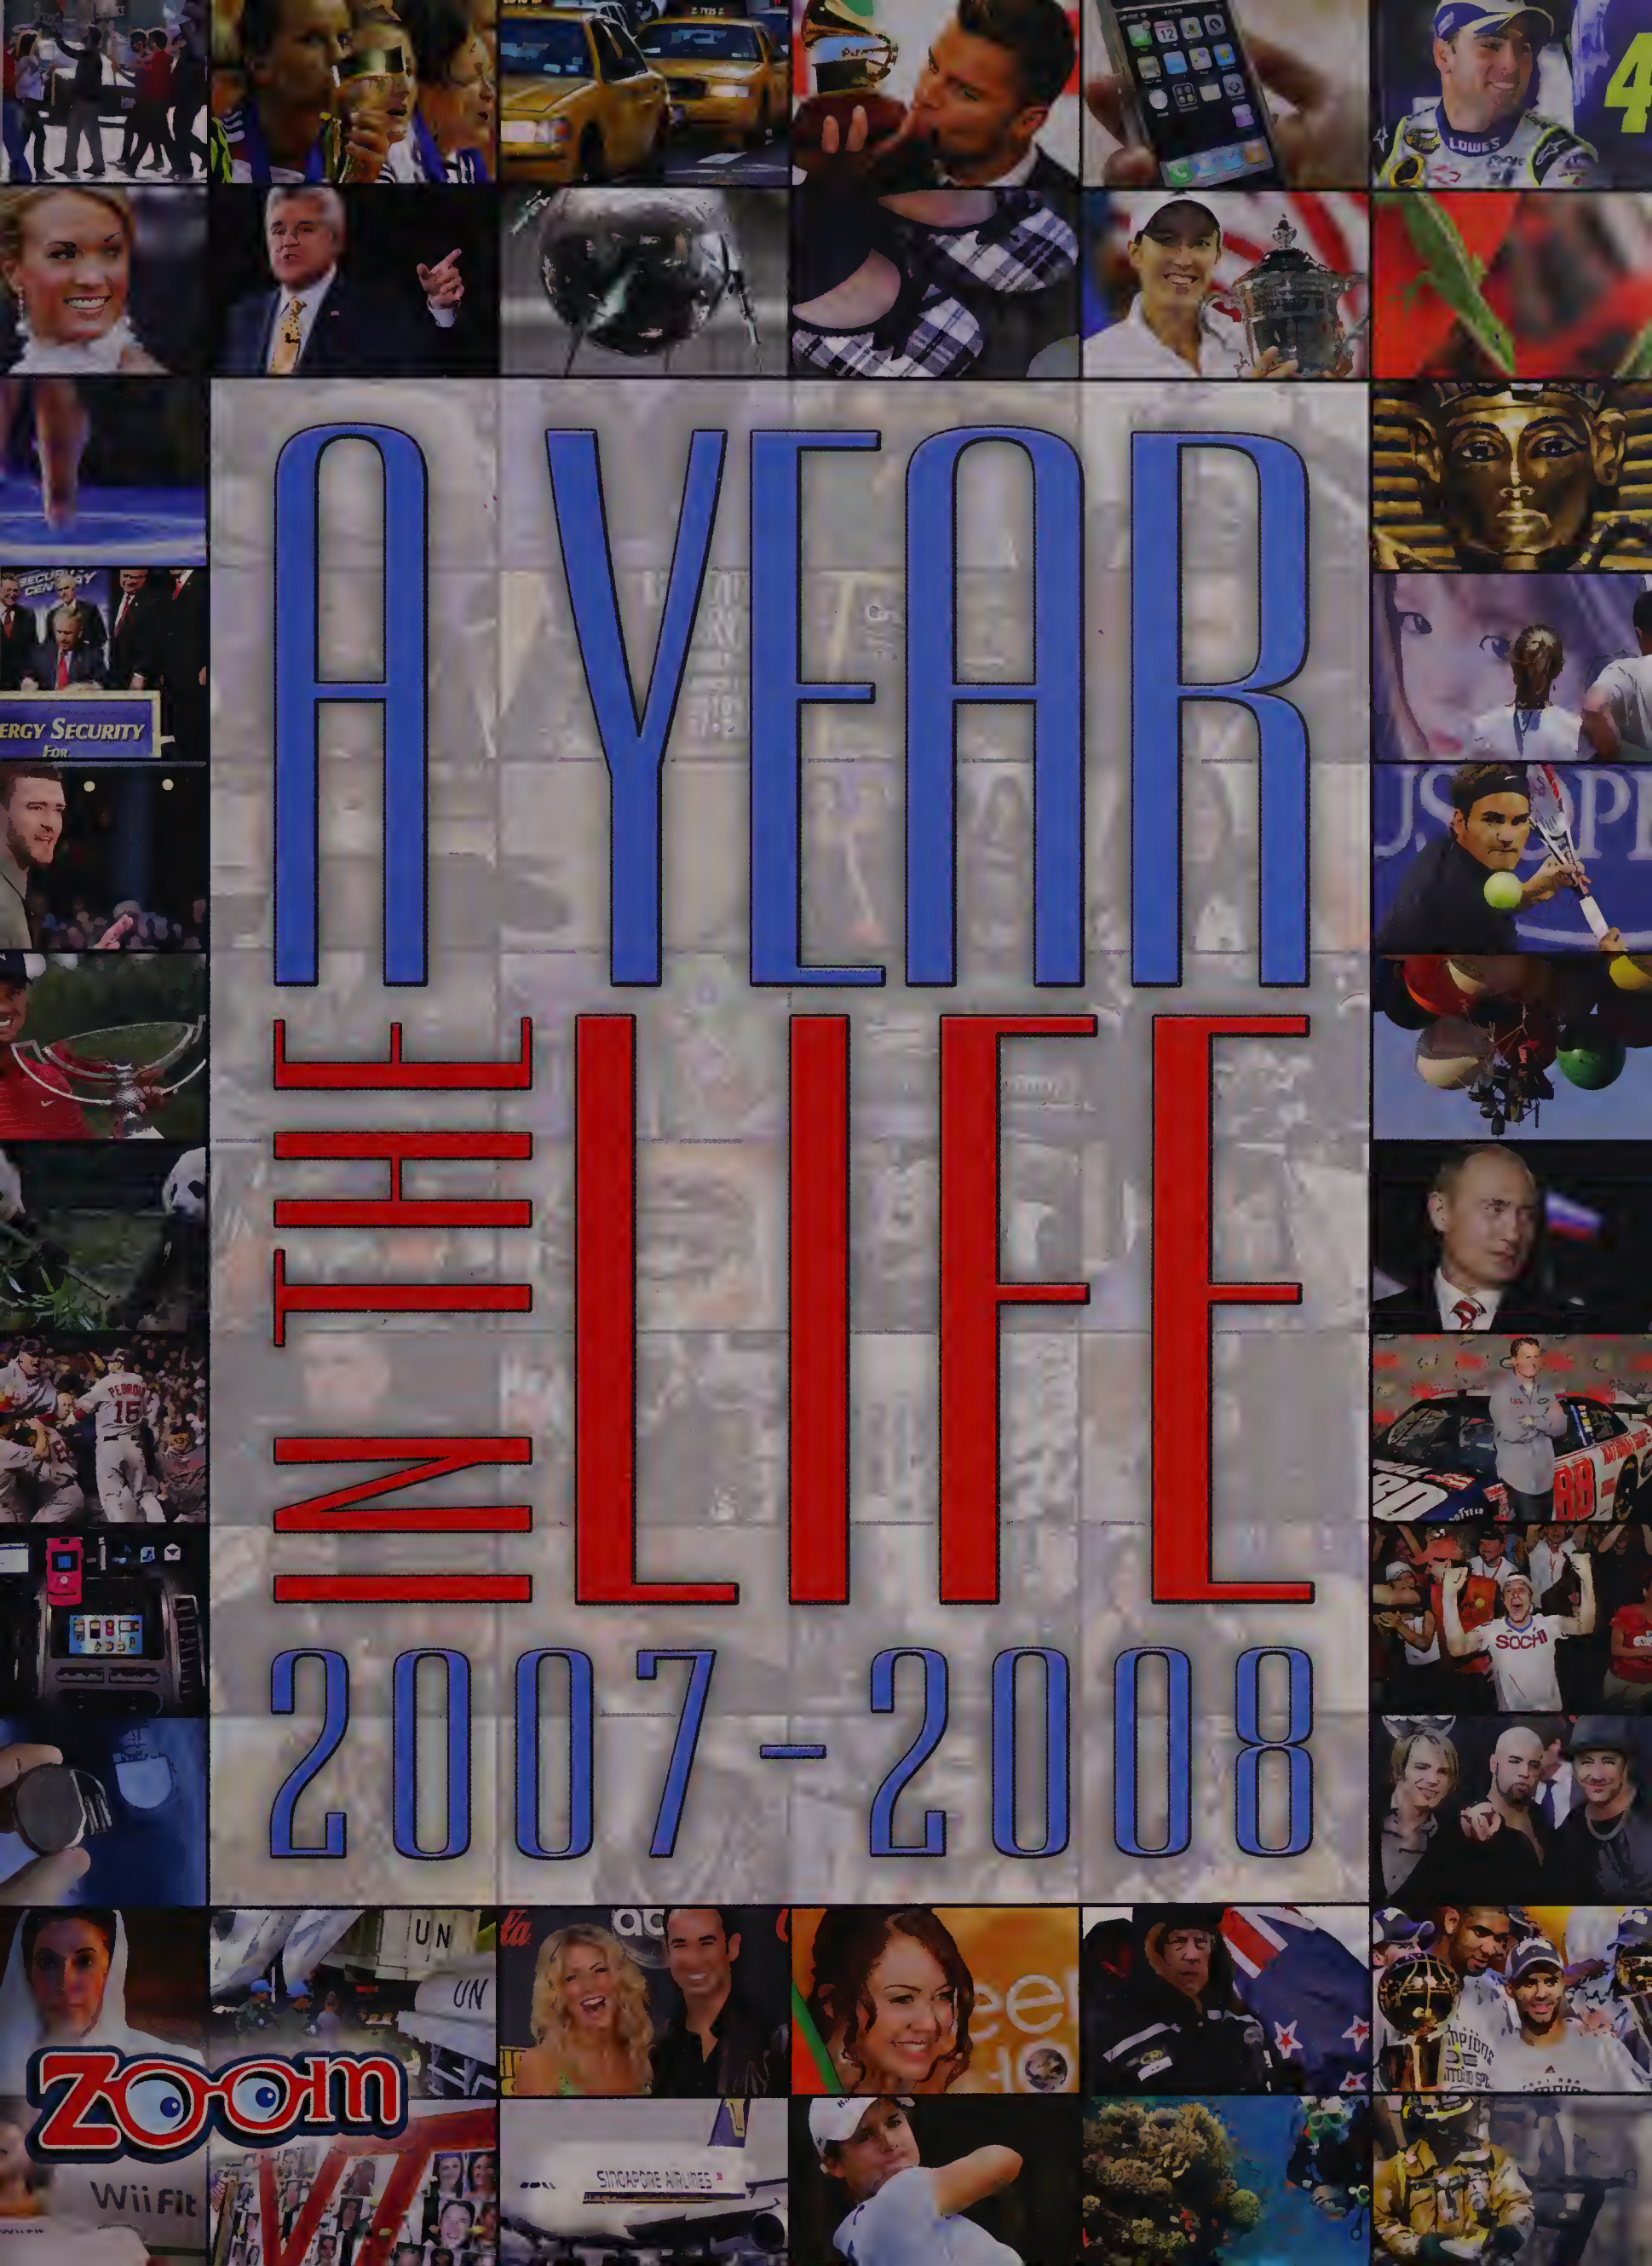

The Huttlestonian 2008 covers events at Fairhaven High School from Fall 2007 to Spring 2008. This is the first year the yearbook is printed all color.

There were 220 copies in our press run. Trim size is 8.5 x 11. The custom cover is full color litho series, matte lamination and a clear silkscreen over the four photos, with mission graining. Text pages are 100# premium gloss text, #1 grade. Font used is Ex Ponte Regular for headlines and Times New Roman Standard was used for the body copy. Colors used are Royal Blue, White, or Black. The Sports pages used Layout #1007 (Activity Collection). The Underclassmen pages used headsize X. The Way We Were section used Layout #951 (Theme Collection). The Senior Section used headsize Z, a custom template with three headshots along with their senior profile. The Retiree Dedications used Layout #955 (Favorites/ Honorees Collection). The students used the Lifetouch Volumes 08 Online Program to design, layout, and produce every page of the yearbook. The book was printed by Lifetouch Publishing and our representative was Katherine Curley.

Senior Portraits, Underclassmen Portraits, School Activities, Clubs, Faculty, and Sports Team Photos were photographed by Maré Studios & Galleries, 98 Front Street, New Bedford, Massachusetts. Some sports photos were photographed by Ed Pepin, edpepinphotography.com.

FAREWELL, LADY BIRD

The world said goodbye to Claudia Alta Taylor, a.k.a. Lady Bird Johnson, at the age of 94. Lady Bird was known for her role as the quintessential political wife. She campaigned tirelessly alongside her husband and even used her inheritance funds to assist with his bid for political office. After Lyndon Baines Johnson became the nation's 36th president, Lady Bird worked as an advocate for the beautification of America and the Head Start program.

ROVE RESIGNS

President Bush's long-time political adviser announced his resignation and left the White House in August 2007. Karl Rove was the latest in a string of administration resignations following the Democratic takeover in Congress. Rove's departure from the White House came as a result of Chief of Staff Josh Bolten's request for staffers to resign before Labor Day or commit to serving through the end of Bush's term.

QUEEN ELIZABETH HITS MILESTONE

Britain's Queen Elizabeth II became the country's oldest reigning monarch when she surpassed the record set by her great-great grandmother Queen Victoria. Victoria lived 81 years and 243 days, and Elizabeth surpassed that record. However, the longest-serving monarch record still belonged to Queen Victoria, who reigned for nearly 64 years. Queen Elizabeth has served for 55 years since her coronation in 1952.

SANCTIONS FOR SECURITY

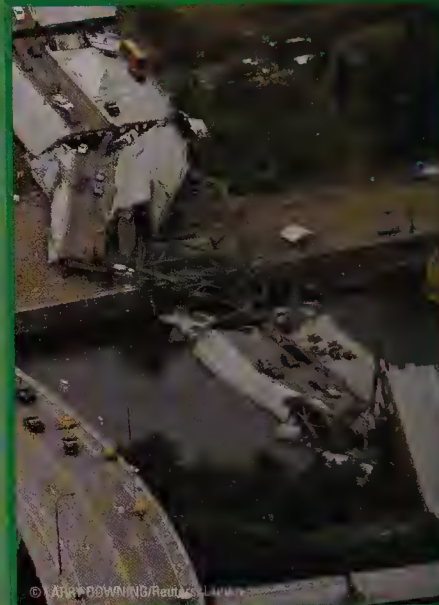

According to Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad, Iran's nuclear weapon development was a closed issue. However, despite repeated demands from the U.N. Security Council, Iran did not suspend enrichment of uranium. The council responded by imposing increased sanctions on Tehran for its refusal to comply. Iran maintained that its nuclear program was aimed only toward generating electricity.

LEAD SCARE RAISES CONCERN

Chinese products fell under scrutiny after potentially dangerous levels of chemicals and toxins were found in a variety of products, ranging from pet food to children's toys. Mattel was forced to recall millions of toys made in China; other products under investigation included shrimp, commercial steel, lipstick, and Boy Scout badges. Ultimately, American companies were held responsible for the quality of their products in the marketplace, but monitoring quality was an enormous task due to the prevalence of Chinese products in the United States.

TRAGEDY IN MINNESOTA

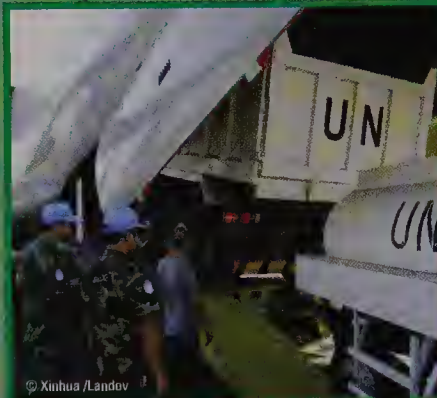

On August 1, 2007, the unthinkable happened in Minneapolis when the Interstate 35W bridge collapsed during rush hour. The 1,907-foot bridge fell into the Mississippi River and onto roadways below in less than 4 seconds. As a result, there were 145 injured and 13 lives lost. The National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB) released its first report in December, revealing that a design error resulted in undersized gusset plates for the truss bridge, which was first opened in 1967. The bridge collapse prompted an increased number of safety inspections for bridges nationwide.

SALES SLUMP

The housing market continued to battle tough times when sales by homeowners hit a record low in October. Economists pointed to the excess supply of homes on the market and adjustable rate mortgages as reasons for the slump. In December, President George W. Bush and policy makers responded by cutting the federal funds rate for the third time that year.

U.N. TROOPS TO AID DARFUR

The United Nations Security Council authorized calling up to 26,000 troops and police to supplement the 7,000 African Union force in Sudan's Darfur region. The combined United Nations-African Union operation aimed to help solve over four years of conflict in Darfur. More than 200,000 people have been killed and 2.5 million have been displaced due to the unrest and fighting in the area.

BHUTTO ASSASSINATED

Pakistan opposition leader Benazir Bhutto was assassinated after a campaign rally. Bhutto's assassination occurred just weeks before the country was to hold a parliamentary election in which she was hoping to win a third term of leadership. Bhutto, who led Pakistan from 1988 to 1990 and again from 1993 to 1996, was the first female prime minister of any Islamic state. Bhutto had been the target of several assassination attempts by Al Qaeda, the Taliban and Pakistani jihad groups.

BROWN PROMISES CHANGE

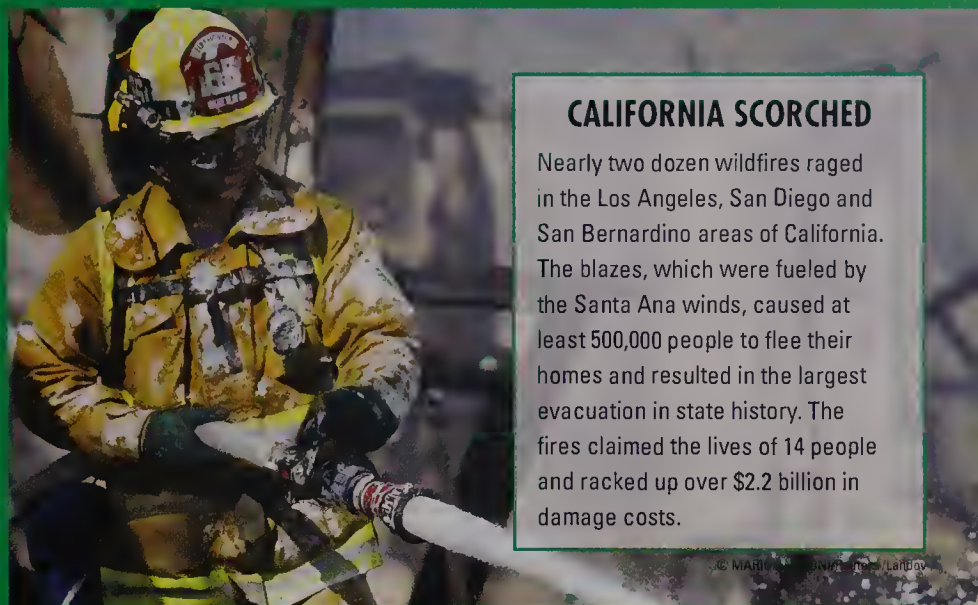

After more than a decade in power, Prime Minister Tony Blair turned over No. 10 Downing Street to the new British Prime Minister, Gordon Brown. The former treasury chief promised a "new government with new priorities." The Prime Minister's call for reform included changes in international institutions to reflect the new global society and the rise of Asia.

DEMOCRACY DEFENDER DIES

Boris Yeltsin will be remembered as the man who brought democratic reform to Russia by ending over 70 years of Soviet Communism. The former Russian President died on April 23, 2007, of heart failure at the age of 76. Yeltsin won international acclaim when he stood on top of a tank in Moscow during a coup attempt against Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev.

CALIFORNIA SCORCHED

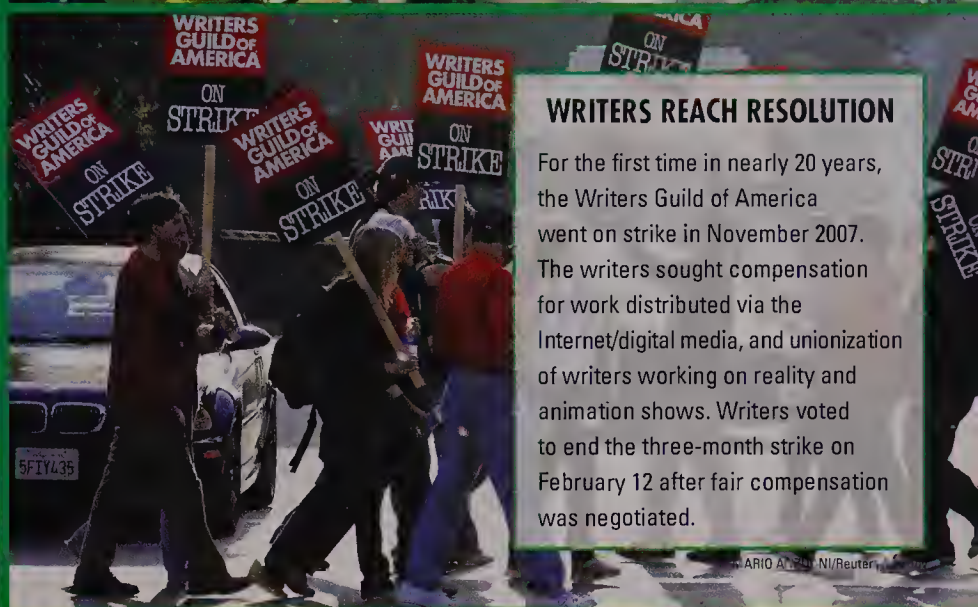

Nearly two dozen wildfires raged in the Los Angeles, San Diego and San Bernardino areas of California. The blazes, which were fueled by the Santa Ana winds, caused at least 500,000 people to flee their homes and resulted in the largest evacuation in state history. The fires claimed the lives of 14 people and racked up over $2.2 billion in damage costs.

THE LONG RACE

The 2008 presidential campaign made headlines before a final candidate was even selected. The race for the presidency was already in full swing as of early 2007, which made it the longest election race in history. A variety of candidates made their bids for the White House, as Americans waited to hit the polls on November 4.

WRITERS REACH RESOLUTION

For the first time in nearly 20 years, the Writers Guild of America went on strike in November 2007. The writers sought compensation for work distributed via the Internet/digital media, and unionization of writers working on reality and animation shows. Writers voted to end the three-month strike on February 12 after fair compensation was negotiated.

MORE MPGS

President George W. Bush signed an energy bill that updated automotive fuel economy standards for the first time in more than three decades. The new law required a corporate average of 35 miles per gallon (mpg) by the year 2020. It also boosted federal support for alternative fuel research and energy conservation efforts. The previous fuel economy standards, 27.5 mpg for passenger cars and 22.2 mpg for light trucks, were established in 1975.

IRAQ UPDATE

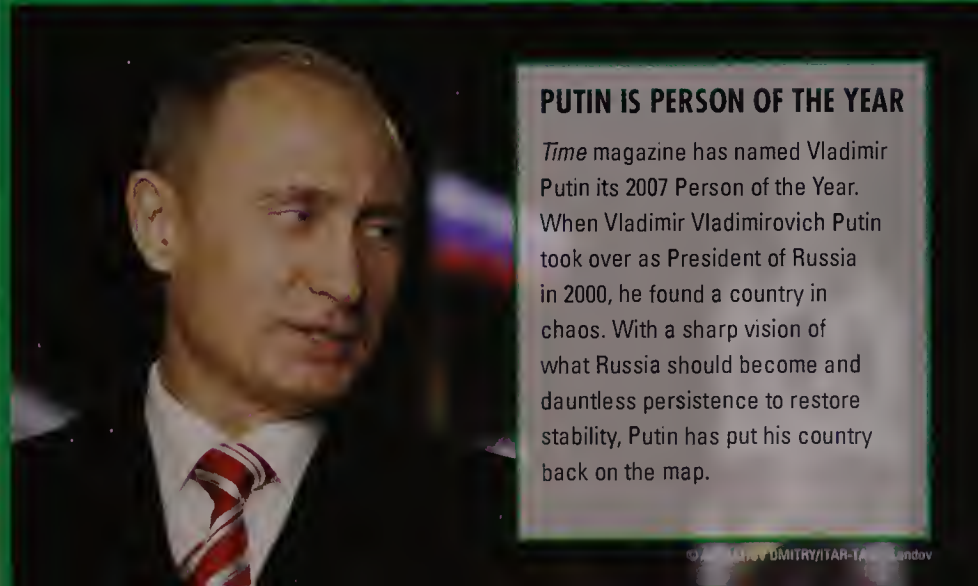

In September, U.S. commander in Iraq, Gen. David Petraeus, announced that military goals of reduced killings in Baghdad and nationwide had been met. Yet, Iraqi ground forces requested U.S. forces to remain in place for the foreseeable future to help control internal security and to defend the nation from external threat. The United States has been at war in Iraq since March of 2003.

CELEBRATED OPERA SUPERSTAR

Fans bid farewell to opera's best-known superstar of the late 20th century on September 6, 2007. Luciano Pavarotti died at the age of 71 in his native home of Modena, Italy. He was undergoing treatment for pancreatic cancer that was diagnosed earlier in 2006. The beloved superstar was one of the few opera singers to win crossover fame. Pavarotti publicly performed his last aria, "Nessun Dorma," at the opening ceremony of the 2006 Winter Olympics in Turin, Italy.

TOP AUTOMAKER POSTS LOSS

General Motors Corp. reported one of the largest losses ever for an automotive company. GM lost $38.7 billion in 2007, despite record revenues from its automotive business due to growth in emerging markets and favorable exchange rates. The automaker's large loss was the result of a third-quarter charge related to unused tax credits. GM narrowly held onto its title as the world's largest automaker; in 2007 it sold just 3,000 more vehicles than Toyota Motor Corp.

HIGHER MINIMUM WAGE

For the first time in a decade, a minimum wage increase was announced. Over a period of two years, the minimum wage increased from the previous minimum of $5.15 an hour to $7.25 an hour in 2009. The bill included $4.84 billion in tax breaks for small businesses to provide support for the wage increase. As of late 2007, the Economic Policy Institute estimated that 4 percent of the work force or 5.6 million workers earned less than $7.25 an hour.

MURDOCH BUYS DOW JONES

After a four-month struggle with the Bancroft family, Rupert Murdoch acquired his top prize, Dow Jones & Company, publisher of the venerable Wall Street Journal. Murdoch's acquisition of Dow Jones was an impressive addition to his $70 billion media empire that included more than 100 newspapers worldwide, satellite broadcast operations, the FOX television network and the online social networking site MySpace. Murdoch paid over $5 billion for Dow Jones & Company, which had been owned by the Bancroft family since 1902.

DOLLAR DIPS

The U.S. dollar hit a record low against the euro in November 2007. The outgoing manager of the International Monetary Fund cautioned that an abrupt fall could trigger a loss of confidence in U.S. dollar assets throughout the global market. As rumors of a U.S. recession circulated, investors kept a watchful eye on markets worldwide.

MCCANN MYSTERY CONTINUES

After almost a year of investigation, the disappearance of 4-year-old Madeleine McCann remains unsolved. The British girl vanished in May 2007 from her family's hotel room at a southern Portuguese resort. Several suspects were named, including her parents, but no formal charges were made.

TOXIC TRAILERS

U.S. Health officials advised the removal of Gulf Coast hurricane victims from government-issue trailer homes due to toxic formaldehyde levels within the dwellings. Tests revealed fume levels up to 40 times the customary exposure. Indoor air temperature was a significant factor in elevated formaldehyde levels—the U.S. Center for Disease Control and Prevention recommended the relocation of residents before summer.

JONES ADMITS STEROID USE

In October 2007, five-time Olympic medalist Marion Jones admitted to using steroids in order to boost her winning performances. As a result, she was stripped of her honors and suspended from track and field competition for two years. In January 2008, Federal Judge Kenneth Karas sentenced Jones to six months in prison for lying to investigators about using performance-enhancing drugs and her role in a check-fraud scam.

TORNADOES SLAM SOUTH

Fanfare surrounding the Super Tuesday primaries was tainted by storms that ripped through the South and killed at least 57 people in several states, including Alabama, Arkansas, Kentucky and Tennessee. The rare winter storm, which spawned destructive twisters, was one of the deadliest in history for the month of February. As the extent of the lives lost and massive damage became clear, presidential candidates paid their respects to the victims.

GOODBYE TO MERV GRIFFIN

Entertainer and businessman Merv Griffin lost his battle with prostate cancer at the age of 82. Griffin, the inventor of popular game shows Jeopardy! and Wheel of Fortune, started his entertainment career as a radio singer earning $100 per week. He moved on to talk show fame as host of The Merv Griffin Show, which lasted over 20 years. After selling the rights to his game shows, Griffin built a multi-million dollar empire comprised of resorts and casinos.

CASTRO CALLS IT QUILTS

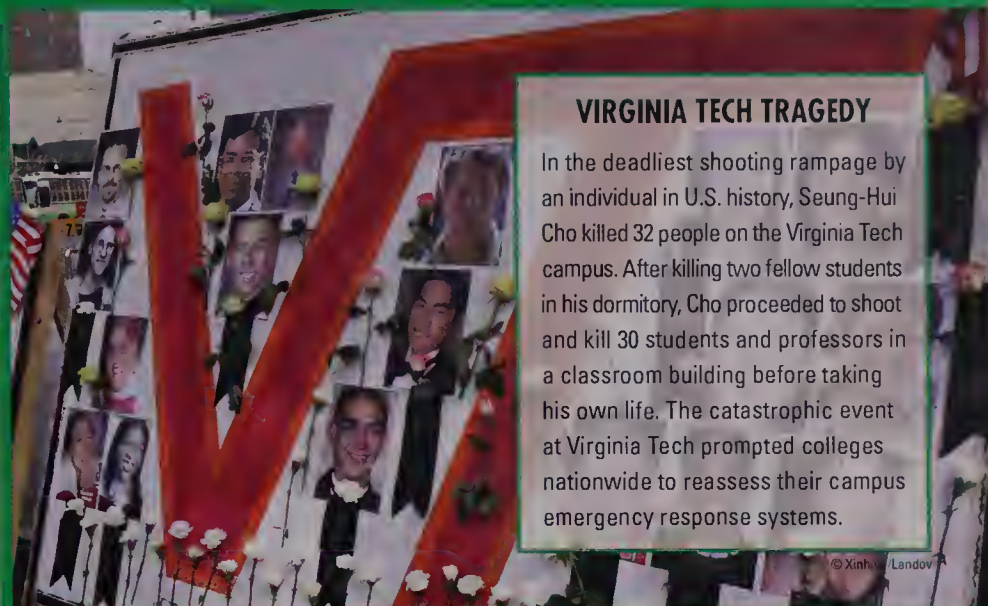

After 49 years in power, Fidel Castro announced his official resignation as president of Cuba and chief of the Cuban military. When Castro was 32, he captured the world's attention by gathering guerillas to overthrow a dictatorship in 1959. He ruled Cuba with an iron fist and adopted a communist regime. After 81-year-old Castro formally relinquished his post, it was announced that Castro's brother and Cuba's defense minister Raúl Castro would be the new Cuban leader.

BLU-RAY WINS BATTLE

Sony's Blu-ray won the format battle over Toshiba's HD DVD. Several factors contributed to Blu-ray's triumph, but movie studios and American retailers played a decisive role. In January, Warner Bros. Entertainment joined Sony Pictures, Walt Disney Co., and Twentieth Century Fox in a commitment to only release movies in Blu-ray format. Retailers such as Target Corp., Wal-Mart Stores Inc., Blockbuster Inc., and Netflix Inc. also opted to sell only Blu-ray DVDs and hardware.

VIRGINIA TECH TRAGEDY

In the deadliest shooting rampage by an individual in U.S. history, Seung-Hui Cho killed 32 people on the Virginia Tech campus. After killing two fellow students in his dormitory, Cho proceeded to shoot and kill 30 students and professors in a classroom building before taking his own life. The catastrophic event at Virginia Tech prompted colleges nationwide to reassess their campus emergency response systems.

USDA RECALLS BEEF

In February 2008, the United States Department of Agriculture recalled 143 million pounds of frozen beef for the largest meat recall in U.S. history. The California slaughterhouse, which provided meat to school lunch programs, was under investigation for the mistreatment of cattle at the time of the recall. The incident prompted demands for stronger enforcement of food safety regulations.

MISSILE TARGETS SPY SATELLITE

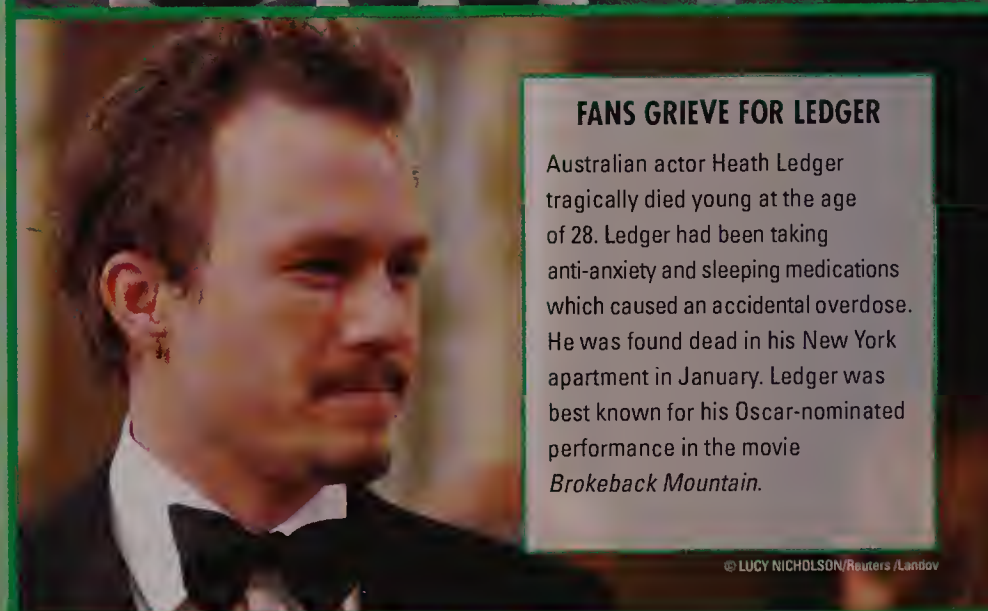

In an unprecedented mission for the U.S. Navy, a missile was launched in February 2008 to intercept and destroy a disabled spy satellite. The satellite weighed about 5,000 pounds and was nearly the size of a school bus. Pentagon officials were concerned about the health hazards posed to humans if the satellite crashed in a populated area. The missile collided with the satellite at a combined speed of over 17,000 miles per hour 130 miles above Earth's surface.

FATAL SUPERBUG

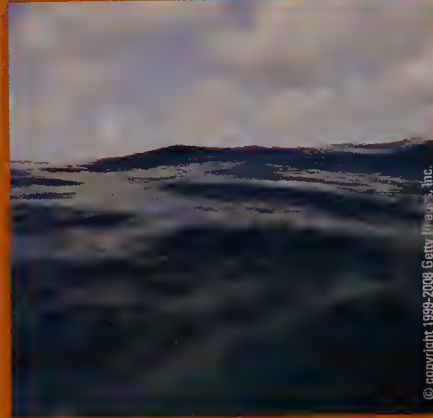

As of 2007, more than 90,000 Americans each year contracted potentially fatal staph infections from a drug-resistant "superbug." The bug was called methicillin-resistant staphylococcus, or MRSA, and its bacteria was carried by healthy people where it lived on their skin or in their noses. It raised concerns because it became more common and it was resistant to penicillin. Without a vaccine for the superbug, the number of deaths caused by it each year could surpass the number of fatalities caused by the AIDS virus.

PANDA POOP TO PAPER

Chinese researchers from the Chengdu Giant Panda Breeding Base learned how to transform a two-ton daily load of panda waste into paper. The idea originated during a visit to Thailand, when they saw paper made from elephant dung. The researchers thought that their 40 bamboo-fed pandas, which produce about two tons of waste per day, could make an even finer paper. Their next step was finding paper mills to process their fiber-rich material into high quality paper.

MONSTER OF THE DEEP

English scientists shared their discovery of an 18-inch fossilized claw that was part of an ancient sea monster. The "monster" was believed to be an 8-foot-long sea scorpion that lived 390 million years ago, and it was the largest of its kind ever found. The scorpions were dominant for millions of years before larger fish stole their reign of the deep seas.

THAT'S CLAMTASTIC!

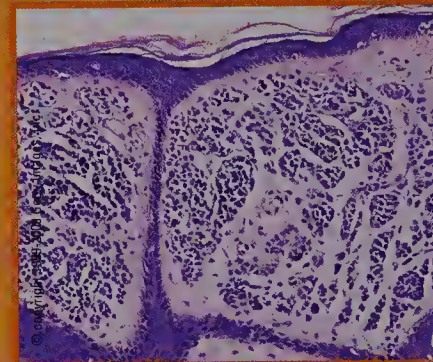

The record for the longest-living animal went to a quahog clam that was found off the coast of Iceland. The 405-year-old quahog clam, nicknamed "Ming" after the Chinese dynasty that ruled at the time of its birth, broke the record previously held by a 374-year-old clam. That was one mighty mollusk!

KING TUT REVEALED

Eighty-five years after the discovery of King Tutankhamun's 3,000-year-old mummy, Tut's face was unveiled for the first time in 2007. The pharaoh's mummified body was displayed for the public in a climate-controlled glass box to protect it from the damaging effects of humidity. The traveling Tut exhibit drew more than 4 million people during a four-city United States tour, and it increased tourism in Egypt as well—there were over 9 million visitors last year.

SKIN CELLS TO THE RESCUE

Research groups from Kyoto University and the University of Wisconsin in Madison have discovered two different genetic recipes that give ordinary human skin cells the power to turn into virtually any kind of human tissue. With this capability, a person's own skin cells could be used to mend a broken spinal cord or repair heart damage. The scientists behind this amazing discovery warned that actual use of the skin cells was still years away, but the breakthrough was a "tremendous scientific milestone."

FUEL ALTERNATIVE

Shell Oil and German biofuel company Choren Industries planned the European launch of a new road fuel called Sunfuel for late 2007. This new fuel was made from wood chips and straw, and its program pilot for synthetic diesel was expected to shift the industry. The projected change involved using plant material waste instead of valuable food crops to create fuel. Sunfuel's cost was more than the price of oil, but Shell spokesmen expected the price to come down as production volume increased.

PURPOSEFUL APPENDIX

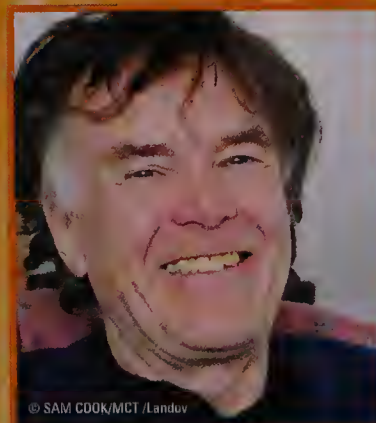

A team of surgeons and specialists at Duke University Medical School proposed a purpose for the appendix. The small organ, located at the beginning of the large intestine, was found to be a storage place for helpful bacteria. The shape of the appendix, as well as focused studies, supported the hypothesis that the appendix's function is to store and supply healthy protective bacteria for the digestive system.

CATCH OF THE DAY

New Zealand fishermen hauled in a colossal catch when they captured the largest squid ever seen. The Colossal Squid (Mesonychoteuthis hamiltoni) weighed over half a ton and measured 33 feet in length. The enormous squid specimen was caught in the Ross Sea near Antarctica, just as it was finishing off a meal of Patagonian toothfish.

STEGER EXPLORES WARMING ARCTIC

In May 2007, Will Steger completed his expedition to the Canadian Arctic to investigate retreating glaciers and other signs of climate change, as well as how the changes affect Inuit people. Steger targeted "emerging leaders" to join his expedition because he wanted the expedition results to reach young people. The team included two Americans, two Norwegians, a Canadian and a British person.

VITAMIN D CRAVING

The “sunshine vitamin,” otherwise known as vitamin D, was found to improve optimal health for humans. Sunlight triggers the human body to produce vitamin D, and most tissues and cells have receptors for the vitamin. A lack of vitamin D was linked to various cancers, tuberculosis, schizophrenia, multiple sclerosis, hip fractures, and chronic pain.

MIGHTY MOUSE

Paleontologists found the nearly complete fossilized skull of a giant prehistoric rat in Uruguay. Based on an analysis of its 21-inch-long skull, the rodent was estimated to weigh between 1 and 2.5 tons—about the size of a hippopotamus. Mighty Mouse, as the Josephoartigasia monesi specimen had been nicknamed, was a major find for researchers studying giant South American rodents.

GECKO GLUE

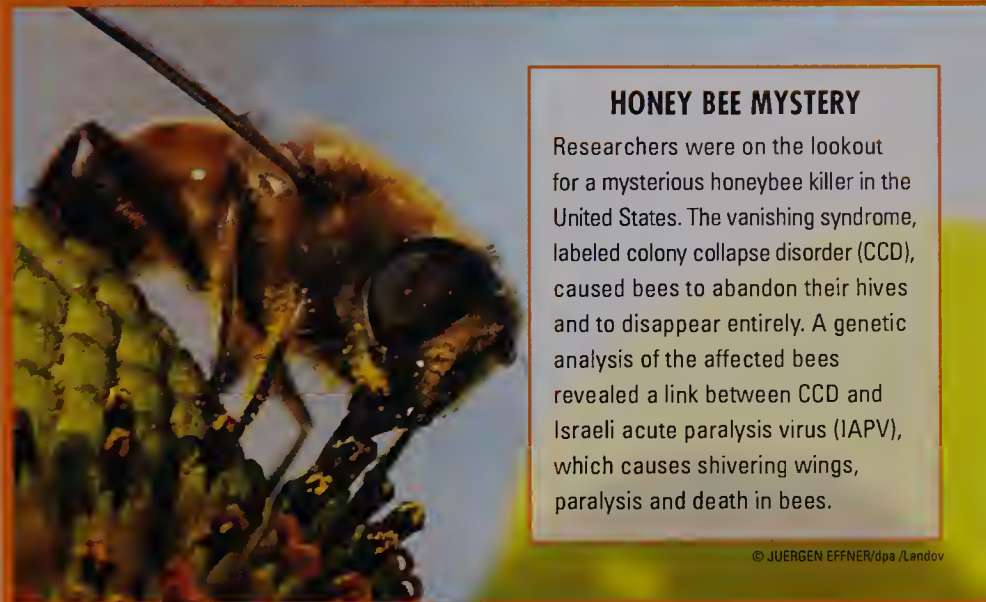

With the help of geckos, biomedical engineers and scientists at Northwestern University invented glue that works like the adhesive on Post-it® notes, but can also work on wet surfaces. The glue was named Geckel because the sticking properties of geckos and mussels inspired its development. Geckel is planned for use in the medical, military, industrial and consumer products fields.

DOUBLE CLONED BURGER

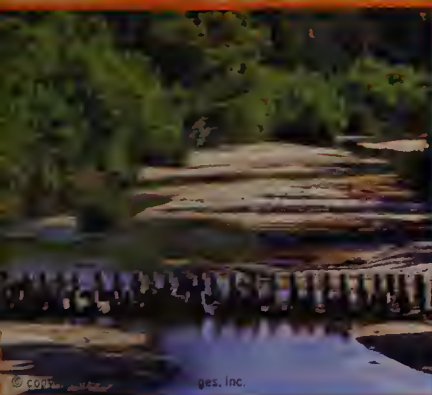

The Food and Drug Administration declared that meat and milk from cloned cattle, pigs and goats are safe to eat, which made the United States the first country to approve cloned food for consumption. The agency announced that it would not require food from clones to be labeled in the marketplace. The FDA awaited the public response to its news before moving forward; a 2006 survey documented that 64 percent of Americans are uncomfortable with animal cloning.

HONEY BEE MYSTERY

Researchers were on the lookout for a mysterious honeybee killer in the United States. The vanishing syndrome, labeled colony collapse disorder (CCD), caused bees to abandon their hives and to disappear entirely. A genetic analysis of the affected bees revealed a link between CCD and Israeli acute paralysis virus (IAPV), which causes shivering wings, paralysis and death in bees.

ARID OUTBACK

For the seventh year, Australia faced what has been called the country's worst drought in a millennium. Drinking-water reserves dipped to record lows across the country and billboards posted alarming consumption statistics. Experts warned that many nations around the world may have to adapt to less water. In response, conservation incentives and water recycling programs were implemented throughout Australia and served as an example for other countries.

NET CAPTURES NEW SPECIES

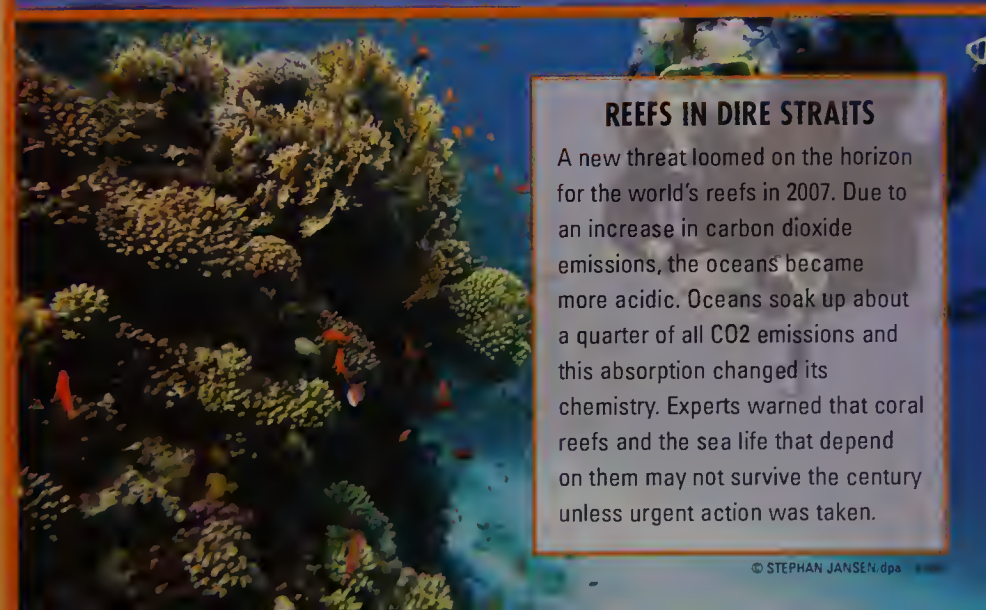

The Philippines added a new bat species to its list of 74 native species, 24 of which can only be found in the Philippines. The Mindoro Stripe-Faced Fruitbat was discovered when it was accidentally captured in a net. The orange bat, with a distinctive white-striped face, was found on an island south of Manila. Researchers from the University of Kansas and the Comparative Biogeography and Conservation of Philippine Vertebrates (CBCPV) were responsible for the discovery.

ENDANGERED NO LONGER

After a four-decade struggle to avoid extinction, the American bald eagle was officially removed from the endangered species list on June 28, 2007. The eagle population rose in 2007 to an estimated 10,000 mated pairs, compared with 417 eagles documented in 1963. Bald eagles continued to be protected by state statutes, the Migratory Bird Treaty Act and the Bald and Golden Eagle Act.

REEFS IN DIRE STRAITS

A new threat loomed on the horizon for the world's reefs in 2007. Due to an increase in carbon dioxide emissions, the oceans became more acidic. Oceans soak up about a quarter of all CO2 emissions and this absorption changed its chemistry. Experts warned that coral reefs and the sea life that depend on them may not survive the century unless urgent action was taken.

SUBTITLE GLASSES

Thanks to researchers at Madrid's Carlos III University, people with hearing impairments enjoyed going to the movies. The prototype for Subtitle Glasses included a mini-display that hangs over the right lens of the glasses to pick up the text that is wirelessly transmitted to it. The text is carefully timed to follow along with the movie, so that all moviegoers could enjoy the show.

VIRTUAL CITY VISIT

Google, the world's dominant search company, brought remote city streets into our homes with Google Maps' Street View. The map feature offered 360° panoramas of major cities such as New York, San Francisco and Chicago via the Web. City buildings, neighborhoods and landmarks across the United States became accessible for users who went to maps.google.com for a virtual stroll.

RISE AND SHINE

Inventors Eoin McNally and Ian Walton decided that an alarm clock was a completely unpleasant way to wake up in the morning. Instead, they created the glo Pillow. The pillow was embedded with a grid of LEDs below its surface and used the gradual increase of light as a wake-up call. The programmable foam pillow simulated a sunrise to naturally wake people up and ease them into the day.

LET IT SNOW

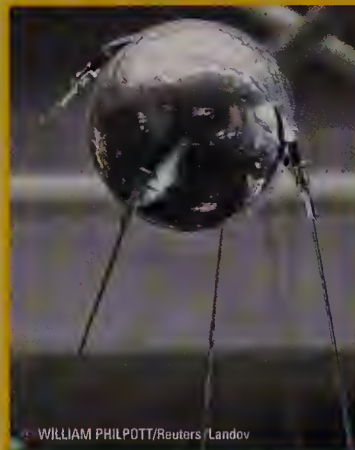

Northern Tibet saw its first snowfall in 2007 through the work of the Tibet Meteorological Bureau. The Chinese bureau injected clouds with silver iodide particles to create the successful half-inch (1.3 cm) of artificial snow that fell in Tibet, about 4,500 meters above sea level. The snow experiment was a response to warnings of melting glaciers and drought in the Himalayan region.

VACCINE BLOCKS BIRD FLU

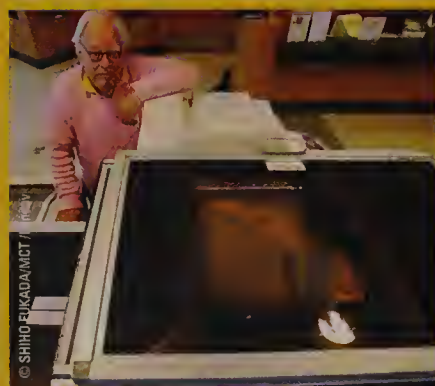

The Food and Drug Administration approved the first bird flu vaccine and announced plans to stockpile it for emergency use during a crisis. The FDA's approval of the vaccine came at a critical time for preparations. In 2007, the H5N1 strain of the bird flu affected seven countries and prompted experts to warn of a pandemic if the virus gained the ability to transfer from human to human.

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF SPUTNIK

The world's first artificial satellite was launched into space on October 4, 1957, and it signified the start of the Great Space Race. NASA Administrator Michael Griffin said, "The Sputnik accomplishment by the Russian people was responsible for the creation of the American space program." Fifty years later, Russians celebrated the Sputnik anniversary by leaving flowers at the tomb of Sergei Korolyov, the visionary behind the Sputnik launch and the father of the Soviet space program.

BOOKS "TO GO"

After several years in development, the Espresso book machine was released in 2007. The $50,000 Espresso machine printed a 300-page paperback on demand, complete with cover, in just three minutes for a cost of only a few dollars. There were initially 2.5 million books available for printing, which the machine can make in any language. The machine's creators, On Demand Books, predicted that eventually the book vending machine will have an infinite library available, due to its partnerships with Google and Open Content Alliance.

FORD SYNC'S UP

Ford and Microsoft joined forces to create Sync, a new automotive electronics system. Sync linked Bluetooth-enabled mobile phones, wireless and USB-based devices into a car audio system. The main appeal of Sync was that it could be controlled by buttons on the steering wheel or by verbal commands to read and write text messages, as well as access tracks of music by artist, title, and genre information. Sync was an available option for 12 of the 2008 Ford, Lincoln or Mercury models, and a planned option for all 2009 models.

NEW AGE MR. ROBOTO

After nearly three years of work, MIT researchers finalized Domo, their robotic creation. Domo was a new breed of robot designed to assist humans with daily living. Using its computerized, human-looking eyeballs, Domo performed tasks that included identifying objects, reaching for items and placing them on shelves. Domo was equipped with a speech recognition system and the ability to sense touch, which made it an ideal helper for the elderly or mobility-impaired.

TEST PREDICTS ALZHEIMER'S

Stanford University researchers developed a new blood test that could potentially diagnose Alzheimer's disease by identifying 18 distinctive proteins that appear with consistency in the blood of Alzheimer's patients. The test demonstrated remarkable potential for predicting which patients with mild memory loss were at high risk for developing the disease. As of 2008, it was estimated that 250,000 Alzheimer's cases went undiagnosed each year in North America.

SWITCHED BLOOD TYPE

In the first known case of its type worldwide, an Australian girl spontaneously switched blood types and adopted her organ donor's immune system. Before her successful liver transplant, 9-year-old Demi-Lee Brennan was seriously ill. Nine months after the transplant, her blood type changed to match her donor's type when stem cells migrated from her new liver to her bone marrow. Despite the unusual nature of her recovery, Demi-Lee's health returned.

LAPTOPS FOR ALL

Nicholas Negroponte of the MIT Media Lab developed a computer that was attainable for the masses. For $150, a person could purchase the XO Laptop. Although the XO Laptop was not the most powerful computer made, the stripped-down machine was a good option for developing nations and for low-income areas within the United States. The low price encouraged governments to buy in bulk and it made a home computer a reality for many.

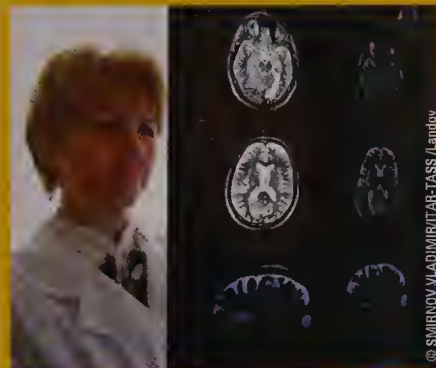

ULTIMATE HELIUM EXPERIMENT

Kent Couch of Bend, Ore., fulfilled his childhood dream when he floated 193 miles, from Oregon to Idaho, on a lawn chair with 105 helium balloons attached. Couch's flying lawn chair was equipped with a GPS system that also measured altitude and speed. After nine hours in the air and reaching an altitude of 15,500 feet, Couch popped enough balloons to safely land his "aircraft" on stable ground.

A LIFE-SAVING MISTAKE

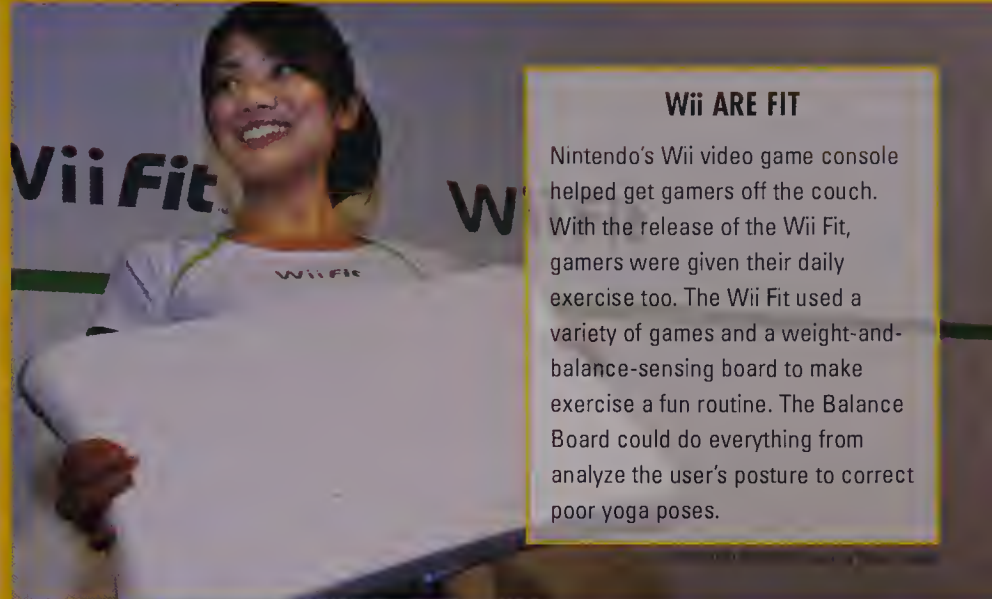

Fifty years ago, Wilson Greatbatch made a small error while testing a device that was intended to record heart sounds. The mistake led to Greatbatch's improvement on the pacemaker design—the first implantable pacemaker. Prior to Greatbatch's accidental discovery, pacemakers were the size of a TV set and painful to use. Wilson Greatbatch's pacemaker was named one of the top ten greatest engineering contributions to society by the National Society of Professional Engineers.

AWAKENING HOPE

A trial treatment for brain injuries offered hope for trauma patients. A gentle current of electricity was delivered by an implanted deep-brain simulator (DBS) to the injured brain of a 31-year-old male patient, and it successfully roused him from six years spent in a semi-conscious state. The electric treatment provided scientists with the insight to analyze brain activity and further develop methods for reconnecting unconscious patients with the world.

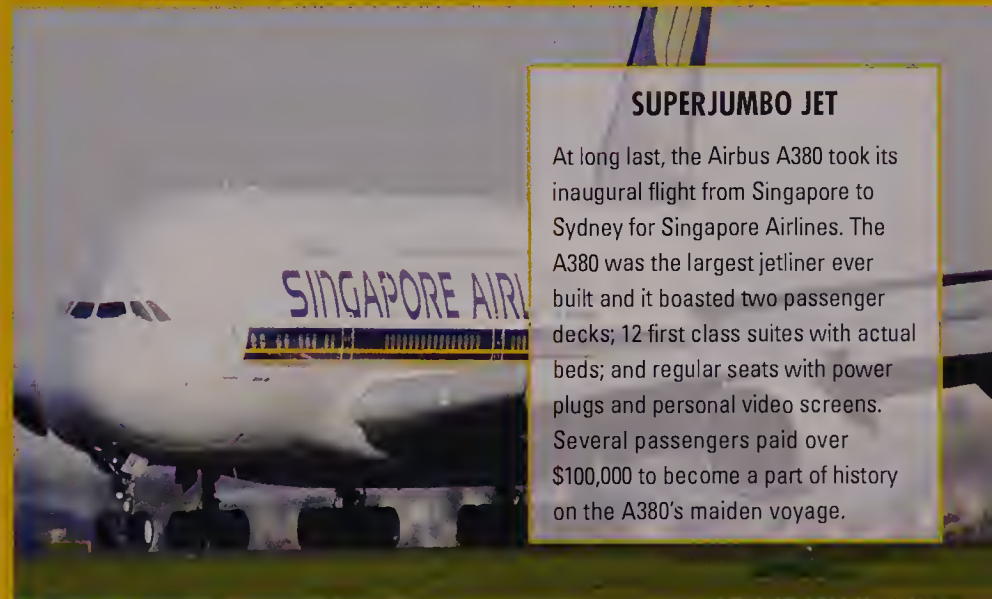

Wii ARE FIT

Nintendo's Wii video game console helped get gamers off the couch. With the release of the Wii Fit, gamers were given their daily exercise too. The Wii Fit used a variety of games and a weight-and-balance-sensing board to make exercise a fun routine. The Balance Board could do everything from analyze the user's posture to correct poor yoga poses.

INVENTION OF THE YEAR

According to Time magazine, Apple's iPhone was 2007's Invention of the Year. The magazine bestowed its honor on Apple's cell phone because it was the first handheld computer to function as a mobile phone with an innovative touchscreen. In addition, the iPhone featured the stylish design and ease-of-use that consumers have come to expect from the Apple brand.

SUPERJUMBO JET

At long last, the Airbus A380 took its inaugural flight from Singapore to Sydney for Singapore Airlines. The A380 was the largest jetliner ever built and it boasted two passenger decks; 12 first class suites with actual beds; and regular seats with power plugs and personal video screens. Several passengers paid over $100,000 to become a part of history on the A380's maiden voyage.

MICROSOFT CREATES SURFACE

With the introduction of its latest innovation, Microsoft brought touchscreen technology to a whole new level. The Microsoft Surface tabletop computer could respond to multiple touches, digital and non-digital objects. Without the use of a keyboard or mouse, the Surface interacted with cameras, phones and paint brushes used on its interactive surface.

THE SCOREBOARD

TIGER TRIUMPHS

For the second year in a row, Woods claimed seven titles in a single season; he also secured golf's first-ever FedEx Cup and its $10 million bonus. The Golf Writers Association of America named Tiger its 2007 player of the year—an award that he won a record nine times within eleven years. Tiger Woods surpassed Arnold Palmer to move into fourth place for the most PGA tour victories, with 63 wins.

TEXAS BASKETBALL DYNASTY

The San Antonio Spurs have earned a place among basketball's elite. After sweeping the Cleveland Cavaliers 83-82 in Game Four of the NBA Finals, the Spurs added their third title in five years and their fourth in the last nine seasons. The Spurs joined the Boston Celtics, Los Angeles Lakers and Chicago Bulls as the only teams in NBA history to win four titles. Tony Parker, who averaged 24.5 points, was the first NBA player from Europe to be honored as MVP.

UNSTOPPABLE HENIN

After the longest three-set final in tournament history, Justine Henin rallied past Maria Sharapova to win the Sony Ericsson Championships and claim her 10th title of 2007. Henin was named Women's World Champion for the second year in a row, in addition to her 2003 title. She won two Grand Slam titles, Roland Garros and the U.S. Open, and she became the first woman to earn more than $5 million in a single year.

A GIANT UPSET

Super Bowl MVP Eli Manning threw two touchdown passes to lead the New York Giants to a 17-14 victory over the previously undefeated (18-0) New England Patriots. Giants wide receiver David Tyree amazed spectators with an outstanding catch that paved the way for the game-winning touchdown. With a record 97.5 million viewers, Super Bowl XLII was the most-watched Super Bowl match-up in sports history.

BONDS BEATS RECORD

Barry Bonds of the San Francisco Giants made headlines when he broke Hank Aaron's 33-year reign over the home run record with run No. 756 in the 5th inning against the Washington Nationals. Bonds achieved the record-breaking run by hitting the 84-mph fastball 435 feet into the right-center field seats. Major League Baseball Commissioner Bud Selig said, "While the issues which have swirled around this record will continue to work themselves toward resolution, today is a day for congratulations on a truly remarkable achievement."

BOSTON'S BIG WIN

In 2004, the Boston Red Sox earned a long-overdue World Series title. After a 4-3 victory over the Colorado Rockies in Game 4, the Sox became Major League Baseball champions for the second time in four seasons. The win became a certainty when pitching powerhouse Jonathan Papelbon struck out Seth Smith to seal the 2007 World Series title for Boston.

PHOENIX RISING

The Phoenix Mercury seemed to do the impossible in the 2007 WNBA Finals. For the first time ever, they won a WNBA championship on another team's home court. The Phoenix beat defending champions, the Detroit Shock, with a 108-92 win. Phoenix's "big three"—MVP Cappie Pondexter, Diana Taurasi and Penny Taylor brought home the title for a franchise that had not been to the playoffs since 2000.

WINTER X GAMES 12

Shaun White scored his 12th Winter X medal in Aspen, Colo., with a gold medal win in the games' finale event, the Snowboard SuperPipe. Aspen's Gretchen Bleiler won the gold medal for the women's Snowboard SuperPipe event. Snowboarder Nate Holland grabbed his third consecutive gold, while Lindsey Jacobellis claimed her first X gold in three years. Also noteworthy was snowmobiler Levi LaVallee's triple gold medal wins.

SOCCER GREATS

The world's top male and female soccer players for 2007 were named by FIFA, and both players hail from Brazil. AC Milan's Kaká became the fifth Brazilian to be named FIFA World Player of the Year. The midfielder also was honored as Europe's top player for 2007. For the women, Marta Vieira da Silva captured her second consecutive World Player of the Year title. She helped the Brazilian team compete in the FIFA Women's World Cup in China.

JOHNSON IS THE MASTER

Zach Johnson, from Cedar Rapids, IA, won the Masters title with a two-shot victory at the 2007 tournament in Augusta, Ga. It was the 31-year-old's first Major tournament victory and only his third tournament win overall. Johnson finished the season with nearly $4 million in earnings.

Dale Earnhardt Jr. surprised racing fans when he announced his departure from the company that his father built, along with his five-year deal to drive for Hendrick Motorsports. Hendrick's garage included drivers Jeff Gordon, Jimmie Johnson and Casey Mears. Beginning in 2008, Earnhardt joined the line-up of the most dominant team in NASCAR racing.

MITCHELL REPORTS

Former U.S. Senate Majority Leader George Mitchell led the charge to clean up Major League Baseball with the publication of his 409-page report. The Mitchell Report, which identified baseball players who allegedly used performance-enhancing drugs, included a list of 7 MVPs and 31 All-Star players. MLB Commissioner Bud Selig and President Bush fully supported Mitchell's efforts to enforce drug-free baseball.

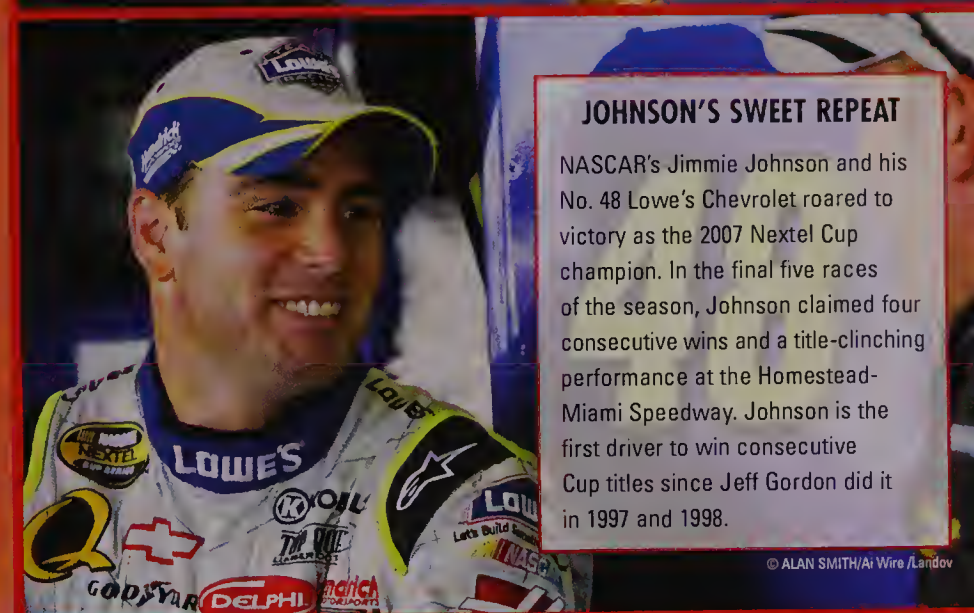

FEDERER DOMINATES

During the 2007 season, Federer won three Grand Slam titles. His overall title count increased to 12 titles—which left him only two title wins behind tennis great Pete Sampras. Federer became the first player to win over $10 million in annual prize money. Roger Federer was only the second player to be named Men's World Champion for four consecutive years, joining Pete Sampras.

BOARDING SENSATION

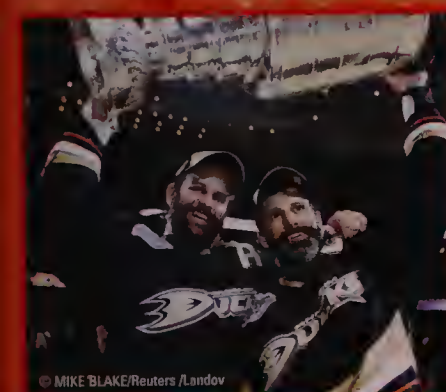

At the age of 17, Ryan Sheckler was the youngest pro skateboarder on the circuit. The teenage dynamo quickly became known for his impressive skills and variety of skateboarding tricks. Sheckler reputedly skateboarded for the first time when he was only 18 months old. The young skateboarding superstar also starred in his own reality show on MTV, Life of Ryan.

JOHNSON'S SWEET REPEAT

NASCAR's Jimmie Johnson and his No. 48 Lowe's Chevrolet roared to victory as the 2007 Nextel Cup champion. In the final five races of the season, Johnson claimed four consecutive wins and a title-clinching performance at the Homestead-Miami Speedway. Johnson is the first driver to win consecutive Cup titles since Jeff Gordon did it in 1997 and 1998.

DUCKS CAPTURE VICTORY

The Anaheim Ducks waited 14 seasons to win the Stanley Cup. Their 6-2 win over the Ottawa Senators ended the long wait. MVP and Captain Scott Niedermayer led the Ducks to victory, with the help of brother Rob Niedermayer and fellow teammates Teemu Selanne and Chris Pronger. Selanne was the Ducks' leading scorer and Pronger held the only successful penalty-shot goal in Finals history. The Neidermayers were the first brothers since 1983 to win the Cup as teammates.

STREET SENSE PROVES IT

Street Sense came out on top in the 133rd Run for the Roses at Churchill Downs. The Kentucky Derby winner fought his way from nearly last place to win the race by over two lengths. It was a first-time Derby win for the colt's jockey, Calvin Borel, and the second for trainer Carl Nafzger. Street Sense was the first Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner to come back and win the Derby; he was also the first 2-year-old to win a Kentucky Derby and the highest-priced winning favorite in Derby history.

OCHOA ACHIEVES GREATNESS

Mexico's Lorena Ochoa had a big year: She won her first major in the Women's British Open at St. Andrews, and she finished her LPGA Tour season with eight victories and more than $4 million. Previously, no female player had won more than $3 million in a year. Ochoa rose to the No. 1 female world ranking and was voted female player of the year by the Golf Writers Association of America.

ECO-CRUSADER

Colin Beavan achieved a personal challenge—to live in New York City for one year without negatively impacting the environment in any way. Beavan, along with his wife and 2-year-old daughter, committed to live without producing trash, carbon emissions and toxins, as well as avoiding the use of any environmentally harmful machines. Beavan's accomplishment earned him recognition as one of the Most Influential Men of 2007, according to msn.com.

HANNAH MONTANA CRAZE

Miley Cyrus, a.k.a. Hannah Montana, became a 15-year-old phenomenon! She was credited with a #1 Album; #1 cable TV show (The Disney Channel's Hannah Montana); a Hannah Montana movie; and a nationwide musical tour. The Hannah Montana & Miley Cyrus: Best of Both Worlds Concert 3-D movie debuted over Super Bowl weekend and earned a record $29 million.

FASHION WITH A PURPOSE

In just two years, Lindsay Giambattista of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., turned a community service project into a thriving non-profit organization. Lindsay started with only 10 trash bags full of apparel to provide clothing for girls in foster care. Taylor's Closet, named after Lindsay's sister who died at birth, received $1 million dollars worth of clothing per year from designers, retailers and private donations in 2007.

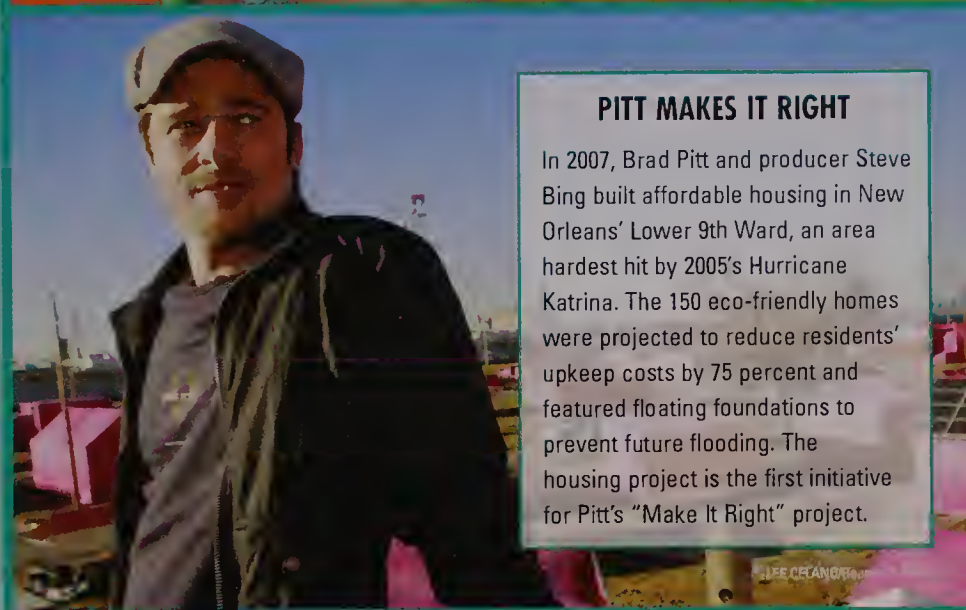

TRENDS & FADS

For 2007, trends included a mix of fabrics and materials such as plaid, tweed, patent leather, animal prints and metallics. Jeans became skinny or wide-leg, and longer shirts became the norm. Platform heels, ballet flats, booties and knee-high boots were seen on nearly every city sidewalk. Additional trends included bright colors, eco-friendly fashion, tote bags, trapeze dresses, empire waists and oversized clutch purses.

EVEREST HERO DIES

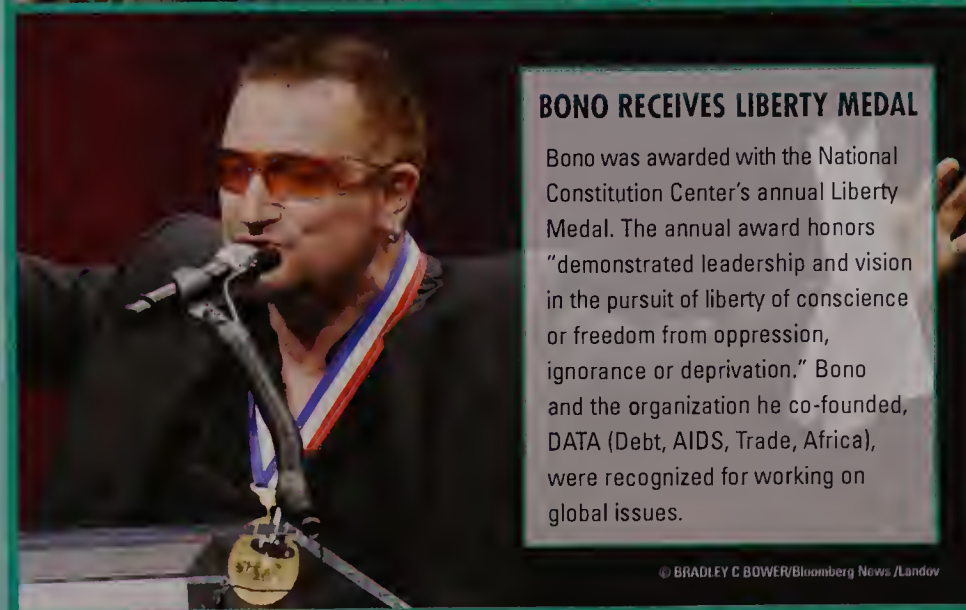

Sir Edmund Hillary, the first man to successfully climb the world's highest peak, died at the age of 88 on January 11, 2008. Hillary, along with Tenzing Norgay, completed his scale of the 29,035-foot Mount Everest on May 29, 1953. After his famed ascent, Hillary led many expeditions to the South Pole. Hillary founded the Himalayan Trust, which was responsible for building hospitals, clinics, bridges, airstrips and nearly 30 schools.

PITT MAKES IT RIGHT

In 2007, Brad Pitt and producer Steve Bing built affordable housing in New Orleans' Lower 9th Ward, an area hardest hit by 2005's Hurricane Katrina. The 150 eco-friendly homes were projected to reduce residents' upkeep costs by 75 percent and featured floating foundations to prevent future flooding. The housing project is the first initiative for Pitt's "Make It Right" project.

LENO'S RETIREMENT PLAN

Jay Leno announced that he will retire from his post as resident funnyman on NBC's The Tonight Show in 2009. Yet, late night humor buffs need not despair—Conan O'Brien will reputedly take over Leno's seat at the top-rated late-night show. In a written statement for NBC, Leno said, "I felt that the timing was right to plan for my successor and there is no one more qualified than Conan."
